RIFLE BULLET AIMED AT BEAR BLAMED FOR DYNAMITE BLAST

FLIN FLON, Man., July 2 (CP).—Details of an explosion Sunday night which killed two men and injured 48 others in barren wilderness north of here, today were described as "fantastic."

Reports of the explosion, at an isolated camp on the new Lynn Lake Railway 100 miles north of here, still were sketchy. Apparently the blast was touched off by a bullet meant for a roaming bear.

It is believed one of the two men killed—either Philip Seguin, 30, of Pinewood, Man., or 24-year-old Wilfred Goodman, of Selkirk—fired a rifle at the bear but missed. The wild bullet struck a powder keg and set off 25 tons of dynamite.

Pilots who flew over the scene later said the explosion blew an enormous crater in the earth and seared surrounding bush. Most of the camp, including three large buildings, was leveled.

Four Americans Seized by Reds

Armed East German Police Storm
Car, Force Tourists Across Border

BERLIN, July 2 (AP).—Gun-brandishing Communist "people's police" arrested four sightseeing Americans, including a chaplain and a woman, today and whisked them into the Soviet-occupied east zone of Berlin.

West German police reported that the incident occurred at Dupeppel, where the American zone residential suburb of Zehlendorf borders the Russian zone.

The police said a Russian officer and East zone police, armed with rifles, rushed the Americans' car when it stopped at the border and the occupants began taking photographs.

The police said the Communists entered the American car and forced it across the border.

Eye-witnesses reported that the car had U.S. license plates, showing when she married the 89-year-old Marquess of Winchester.

Miss Bapsy Pavry, 49, wed the elderly nobleman at a quiet registry office ceremony. Two office clerks acted as witnesses. No relatives attended.

The groom's title dates back to 1539—older than that of any other marquess. He survived two previous wives, both of whom were widows when they married him.

He and Miss Pavry, daughter of the late High Priest of Bombay, first met in 1928.

On the eve of his wedding, the marquess said he had proposed to Miss Pavry only in the last few days.

LONDON, July 2 (Reuters).—An Indian woman today became the premier marchioness of Britain—and the first non-white marchioness—when she married the 89-year-old Marquess of Winchester.

Briton Suggests Coalition Government As Solution to 'No Majority' Problem

Formation of another coalition government would be the traditional and probably the best procedure to follow if no party emerges with a clear majority in British Columbia's election.

This was the opinion of Lord Campion, one of the world's leading authorities on parliamentary procedure, who is in Victoria on a Commonwealth tour.

Lord Campion said minority governments have never been very successful, but certain coalition governments had done well.

Canada's parliamentary procedure is cumbersome in comparison with that used in Great Britain.

Lord Campion said his studies have revealed that the Canadian system is cumbersome, but it gives private members much more freedom than their counterparts in the House of Commons.

"Freedom is cumbersome. That is well known."

"In England, we have had to resort to quite drastic measures in this matter of procedure. There are 625 members in the House and procedure has been streamlined in order to get the work done," he said.

Lord Campion, who is writing a book on parliamentary procedure in the Commonwealth nations, felt that Canada in time may have to streamline its parliamentary procedure.

Of interest to parliamentary observers here will be Lord

Rail Workers Seek Increase

OTTAWA, July 2 (CP).—Contract demands served on the railways by their non-operating unions Thursday will include a call for wage increases of more than 30 cents an hour, it was learned today.

B.C. ELECTIONS

Second Count On Thursday

The break in the "waiting it out" period for British Columbia's political leaders and voters will come Thursday morning when counting of the alternative votes in the June 12 election begins.

At returning officers' headquarters in the 41 ridings (for 48 seats) counting will begin at 9 a.m. and will continue daily until decisions have been reached.

But because of the closeness of many contests and the large vote cast it may be another week before the final results are known and British Columbia gets a full picture of what its next government will be.

First job of the counting teams will be to check the absentee vote and thus arrive at complete first count results. Then the low candidates will be dropped from the contests and the second choices on their ballots will be distributed according to the way they are marked.

Not many ridings specially trained small teams have been chosen to do the second counts. This means that counting will be much slower than on election night when ballots were counted by hundreds of teams in precincts.

Outside of the four seats already decided it is expected only one or two other ridings will be settled tomorrow. Far north Atlin, where only three candidates ran, and there are comparatively few votes, should be the first one reported.

To assist its readers in following the workings of the new voting method, The Times will carry reports on the complete first counts, the second and third counts necessary and will show how the alternative votes are distributed. These will be reported progressively as they are received.

Salisbury, Wiltshire, England, July 2 (CP).—An R.A.F. fighter-bomber cut a flaming path through 14 small houses in a crash on the outskirts of Salisbury today. Only the plane's two occupants were killed.

The plane plunged into the middle of a government housing development and splattered the prefabricated buildings with gasoline. All but nine persons got out of the houses unharmed and the nine were not seriously injured.

The plane, a twin-engine Bristol fighter-bomber, had been on a test run from a nearby airfield. A Ministry of Supply inspector died in the wreckage with the pilot.

A huge sheet of flame and billows of smoke followed the impact. Ambulances and fire engines were rushed from all surrounding centres.

The plane first hit a tree and careened through a high tension line before hitting the houses. Air force firefighters wearing asbestos suits joined firemen to control the blaze.

A similar operation in Chicago last fall was unsuccessful.

The paper's newspaper story says a month ago Mrs. Dorothy Pezz, 26, was so swollen with Bright's disease as a result of her own kidneys refusing to function that she weighed 185 pounds and was near death from the poisons accumulating in her system.

"Today she is down to a normal 120 pounds, feels fine, is living a normal life and within two months will resume her job as a receptionist."

The operation was performed by Dr. Gordon Murray of Toronto, who has been experimenting for years on the transplantation of kidneys in animals and who was the first to make a successful mechanical kidney.

"Toronto surgeons suggest that transplantation of the liver may soon be possible and many lives may be saved in cases of cirrhosis or hardening of the liver and other diseases of that organ," the paper says.

Mrs. Pezz's own kidneys were not removed. The third one was added.

"I'm nearly 90, you know," he said. "When you get to my age it's too late to waste time. You have to act quickly."

Raven-haired Miss Pavry, a bride for the first time, wore a white sari with a silver brocade border which has been in her family for 300 years.

Silver and gold bangles adorned her wrists and she wore a large pearl necklace.

The couple have not disclosed their honeymoon plans but intend to go to India later this year. The marquess has not lived in England permanently since 1930, when he was declared bankrupt after being ruined in a financial crash.

The marquess has no children and heir to the title is a cousin, Maj. Charles S. Paulet, who lives in London.

U.N. headquarters in Tokyo said the raiding force was of Lattion-strength, 750 to 1,000 men.

The Eighth Army said the Communists suffered 11,316 casualties in June—the heaviest toll in five months.

CANADIAN $1 HITS 1.03 1/4 AT NEW YORK

NEW YORK, July 2 (CP).—The Canadian dollar, which Tuesday hit an 18-year high in terms of U.S. funds, today climbed to a premium of 3 1/4 per cent.

Foreign traders said the Canadian dollar was worth $1.03 1/4 U.S. in noon trading. It closed Tuesday at $1.03 3/4.

Today's quotation on the Canadian dollar was the highest since 1934 when it was worth $1.03 1/4 U.S. when an advance in U.S. gold prices was anticipated.

Charles LeFevre, 50, was killed in a head-on, two-car collision Tuesday in suburban Burnaby.

His car collided with one driven by Neil C. McKinnon of Victoria. McKinnon was treated in hospital at New Westminster for minor bruises and then discharged.

At Golden, the Kicking Horse River claimed the life of nine-year-old Arthur Langlands.

Larry Lawson, a Port Simpson cannery worker, died when his canoe capsized in the Skeena River.

Also listed on the fatality roll are:

Sieve Kuz of Messtier; Mrs. Rosie Wallace, 50, of the Summerville Indian Reserve; Freddy Griffiths, eight, Vancouver; Tony Doole, 17, Vancouver; and Alex Anthony, 33, West Vancouver.

Kuz, a railway patrolman, was struck by a Canadian National Railway train at Blue River, while Mrs. Wallace was drowned in the Vedder River near Chilliwack.

Griffiths was drowned when he fell off a float at Vancouver.

Doole and Anthony died near Chilliwack. Doole was a traffic victim while Anthony died in a plane crash. His aircraft fell in Okanagan Lake.

Douglas Stuart, 24, died instantly Tuesday night when the speedy midge car in which he was riding overturned on the Loughheed highway, two miles from Mission City.

The driver of the car, Walter McCallum, 29, was taken to the Mission hospital.

The light car turned over after passing another vehicle at Rutland's Corner.

101 Canadians Meet Death in 'Black' Holiday

Victoria Woman Among 10
Victims in B.C. Accidents

The 1952 Dominion Day holiday will go down in history as one of the blackest ever recorded.

Between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Tuesday 101 persons met violent death in Canada. In the total were 10 British Columbians including one Victorian.

Traffic accidents claimed the lives of 41, and drowning was second in the grim race with 36 victims.

Only Newfoundland escaped the death toll. Here is the breakdown of fatalities in other provinces: Ontario, 42; Quebec, 18; Manitoba, 12; New Brunswick, 10; Alberta, six; Nova Scotia, six; Saskatchewan and Prince Edward Island, one each.

In British Columbia since the start of the holiday, there have been four traffic fatalities and four drownings. One man was run down by a train, and another died in a plane crash.

Victoria and district's fatality was Mrs. Frances Boorman, 63, 3238 Wetherby Road, who was killed in a car collision at the corner of Denman and Belmont Street Monday night.

Charles LeFevre, 50, was killed in a head-on, two-car collision Tuesday in suburban Burnaby.

His car collided with one driven by Neil C. McKinnon of Victoria. McKinnon was treated in hospital at New Westminster for minor bruises and then discharged.

Baseball, cricket and speedboat races highlighted the Victoria activities and large crowds attended all three events.

Fishing resorts reported a roaring business and "king of the anglers" today probably is Capt. J. K. Ewing of Victoria, who hooked a gold-button winning 43 1/2-pound spring salmon Monday night in Saanich Inlet. It is the biggest salmon caught in this area by a sports fisherman in two years.

Meanwhile, tourist trade interests reported heavy travel as the season got into high gear.

WASHINGTON, July 2 (AP).—A U.S. Senate Committee charged today that Owen Lattimore has been "a conscious articulator instrument of the Soviet conspiracy" and recommended perjury proceedings against him and John P. Davies, Jr., a state department official.

Lattimore is a John Hopkins University professor and a Far Eastern affairs specialist who has served as an occasional consultant to the State Department.

Davies, formerly on the State Department's policy planning staff, now is deputy political adviser to U.S. occupation authorities in West Germany.

A formal report of the Senate Internal Security subcommittee said both Lattimore and Davies testified falsely during its recent inquiry into the Institute of Pacific Relations.

The subcommittee spent more than a year investigating the institute in a search for possible Communist influences on United States policy in the Far East.

But accidents increased 6.3 per cent to 7,522 in the five months since the start of the year. Property damage increased 16.6 per cent to $2,130,775. Total of 2,298 persons have been injured so far this year, an increase of 7.8 per cent.

In May of this year, 14 persons died in traffic accidents.

HERE, THERE AND EVERYWHERE

Condensed from CP, AP, and UP Dispatches

IN—In Alexandria, Egypt, the new non-party Egyptian cabinet headed by Hussein Sirry Pasha, former premier, was sworn in today by King Farouk.

Sirry, an independent, and his 13 ministers succeeded the government of Naguib Hilali Pasha, who resigned last Saturday after four months in office.

Informants said the new cabinet does not include dynamic young Ahmed Mortada El Maraghy Pasha, who had been interior and army-navy minister in the two previous independent cabinets which have governed Egypt since the king ousted the Wafdist party government last January.

Earlier reports said Sirry Pasha had been unable to form a government because El Maraghy Pasha insisted on retaining the interior ministry, which controls the police.

In the cabinet lineup reported today, Sirry Pasha named his son-in-law, Mohammed Hashem Pasha, as interior minister and kept for himself three jobs—premier, foreign minister and army and navy minister.

WARNING—In Calgary, a warning that Canada must open its doors to more immigration or "be forced to open them" was made today by John Kidd, executive director of the Canadian Citizenship Council.

In a speech prepared for delivery at the annual convention of the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities, Mr. Kidd said Canada must remove immigration policy from its "emergency" basis.

A long-term policy must be decided with the necessary administration machinery, housing, employment and educational facilities to support sustained immigration.

"Sooner or later," he said, "the tremendous unbalance of population, standards of living and material resources among the nations is going to create real and perhaps shattering problems for Canada."

FREE—In Paris French Communists today hailed the release from prison of their chief, Jacques Duclos, but admitted they expect the government to attempt further legal action against party leaders and members.

The cabinet today may set the stage for further prosecution of Duclos by asking parliament to lift the immunity from arrest he enjoys as a member of the National Assembly.

The Red boss walked out of Sante prison Tuesday night after a five-man grand jury ruled the government had not proved that the 56-year-old former pastry cook had been caught in the act of plotting against the state.

He had been arrested May 25 at the height of a violent riot against Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, newly-appointed Atlantic Pact commander. Police found a loaded revolver and a blackjack in his car. Parliamentary immunity is cancelled if a member is caught in the act of committing a crime or if parliament votes to lift the protection. The government contended Duclos had been caught in the act.

UNFAIR—In Ottawa, at the request of Prime Minister St. Laurent, a Progressive Conservative Senator from Saskatchewan Tuesday night tried to straighten out remarks he made on amendments to the constitution.

Senator Arthur Marcotte put on record a letter from Mr. St. Laurent in which the prime minister said Senator Marcotte made "an unfair statement concerning myself."

The letter referred to a Senate debate in which Senator Marcotte said the government would be violating an undertaking by Mr. St. Laurent by amending the British North America Act without the provinces agreeing on the procedure to be used.

Senator Marcotte said his statements were based on those made in 1950 by Senator Norman Lambert (L-Ontario).

Senator Lambert said that in quoting his remarks, Senator Marcotte took them out of context and did not include certain qualifications.

July 1 Salute Aimed at Enemy

WITH THE CANADIANS IN KOREA, July 2 (CP)—Dominion Day was a real holiday for Canadian soldiers in Korea.

A special arrangement was worked out by Maj. Gen. Jim Cassels, commander of the Commonwealth Division, enabling most of the 25th Brigade troops to celebrate the occasion.

"E" troop of the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, commanded by Lieut. G. Ward of Shilo, Man., and Quebec City, fired a 21-gun salute at noon, the shells falling on known Communist positions.

Island Flier Is Missing

P.O. Michael Willoughby Aboard
R.C.A.F. Bomber Lost in Yukon

Pilot Officer Michael Willoughby Hooper, 26, of Cobble Hill, is one of four men aboard an R.C.A.F. plane missing since Monday on an exercise in the rugged Yukon country.

Thirty-two aircraft today awaited improved weather to resume the search for the Mitchell light bomber.

Air Force headquarters in Edmonton reported the plane disappeared between Whitehorse and Mayo, Y.T., some 1,000 miles north of Edmonton, while on a summer training scheme for reserve units.

P.O. Hooper is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hooper.

He is the navigator on the plane.

The worried father and mother reported today that Michael recently got his temporary commission. Stationed at Sea Island, he went to Edmonton to take part in the exercise.

Others aboard are F.O. J. A. Mortweld, Edmonton; F.O. B. J. Pasichniak, Namoo, Alta.; and P.O. Davidson, stationed at Edmonton, whose next-of-kin live at Wehthill, Ont.

Nine aircraft scanned the 6,600 square miles of wooded and mountainous terrain Tuesday before rain. High ice and thick cloudbanks brought a temporary halt to search operations.

Available for the hunt today were 18 Mustangs, 11 Mitchells, two Dakotas and a helicopter. Search headquarters sent out a call for six additional Dakotas—two from Edmonton and four stationed at Rivers, Man., but at present at Calgary.

The summer exercise was called off temporarily and all resources thrown into the search. Reserve units from the three prairie provinces are in the scheme.

P.O. Hooper served in the R.C.A.F. in Second World War.

MAWHINNEY B.C. CHAMP

VANCOUVER, July 2 (CP).—Bill Mawhinney retained his British Columbia amateur golf championship Tuesday by defeating Walt McElroy one up in a 36-hole final on the Marine Drive course.

Neither of the two, both Vancouverites, played par golf. Mawhinney carried a 71-74-145, while McElroy had 74-72-145.

TYPHOON HITS PHILIPPINES

MANILA, July 2 (AP).—Full fury of a 115-mile-an-hour typhoon swept into the South Central Philippines today.

The northeast Mindanao coast was lashed by heavy winds. Southern Leyte was virtually paralyzed.

The Manila weather bureau in a bulletin at 5 p.m. (2 a.m. P.D.T.) located the typhoon centre 80 miles southeast of Cebu City, on Cebu.

Winds of 55 miles an hour were estimated within a 60-mile radius of the storm centre.

Philippine Air Lines cancelled all flights from Manila to the Visayan Islands and Mindanao.

Earlier the Philippine Air Force began evacuating its heavier type craft from Manila to Zamboanga.

Alexander Reveals Weaknesses

LONDON, July 2 (Reuters).—A section of Earl Alexander's speech to the Canada Club Tuesday night, "bushed" out of newspapers at the minister's request, expressed uneasiness over the state of reserves for the U.S. Eighth Army in Korea, Prime Minister Churchill disclosed today.

Churchill told the House of Commons that Alexander in an "impromptu" address had said: "I should be very much happier if Gen. (James) Van Fleet had a little more reserve in his own hands."

"I think if the Chinese attempt a full scale offensive they will penetrate the front to a depth of some miles in some places, but I think that owing to the efficiency of the Eighth Army and their fire power they will be able to bring the offensive to a halt."

Alexander prefaced these remarks by saying there were weaknesses in Korea which he had not liked to mention when reporting to the House of Lords on his recent visit there. He said he hadn't told the Lords "because it was a thing I was asked not to mention as a matter of secrecy."

Churchill said Alexander used the word "secrecy" on the spur of the moment and it was undoubtedly ill-chosen. What he meant was that the remarks might be misconstrued if made in a public speech.

The Ghosts of 1912

WITH POWER ALMOST IN ITS grasp, the Republican party of the United States obviously is in danger of a fatal split.

Not since 1912, when Theodore Roosevelt's quarrel with President William Howard Taft and the emergence of Roosevelt's Bull Moose party assured the election of Woodrow Wilson, has the Republican party been so openly divided as it is today between Taft's son and General Eisenhower.

Unless the Republicans can heal the present bitter feud before November the results of 1912, even without a third party in the field, could easily be repeated. The Republicans, as they demonstrated as recently as 1948, have an unlimited capacity for suicide.

Senator Taft believes he is assured of nomination a few days hence because he controls the machinery of the party convention. This undoubted control is a two-edged weapon. It could nominate Taft in July and defeat him in November. The New York Times, a Republican supporter, puts Taft's danger thus:

"Steam-roller tactics (by the Taft forces in the convention) will alienate many Taft Republicans and will drive the Eisenhower Republicans in droves away from the ballot boxes. And obviously the nominee of a rigged Republican convention would attract neither the independents nor the Democrats who must be attracted if the next President of the United States is to be a member of the Republican party."

General Eisenhower and his lieutenants believe that the steam roller already is in full operation. Senator Lodge, General Eisenhower's campaign manager, attacks the "shyster tactics" of the Taft forces in making the convention nothing better than a "kangaroo court" whose verdict is assured in advance. All this may not alter the decision of the convention, if Senator Taft has sewed up enough delegates, but it could certainly alter the outcome of the election.

The Republicans have a good chance to win in November, their best chance since Roosevelt swept to power in 1932. They could quickly throw it away by their own quarrels and especially by the public belief that their convention was rigged. With General Eisenhower as their candidate their victory will be as sure as anything can be in the uncertainties of politics. If Senator Taft is nominated and the powerful Eisenhower forces are disgusted by the convention tactics of the professional politicians the aged Democratic Administration could hope for another term.

The great question in Chicago a few days from now is whether the Republicans will spoil their great chance, whether in winning a convention Senator Taft, like his father before him, will smash his party and lose the election. The steam roller seems to be getting out of hand.

A Triumph for Victoria

IN ADDITION TO THE TWO coaches, Archie McKinnon and Bruce Humber, four Victorians have been selected for Canada's Olympic track and field and swimming teams.

Of the athletes chosen, Peter Salmon scored the most impressive triumphs in the national trials. Not only did the Victoria-born middle student win the 100 metres breaststroke. He was first also in the 100 metres back and 100 metres freestyle.

Dawn Josephs qualified like a champion in the women's jumps, while Bob Hutchison and Bill Parnell pressed so hard on the winners of sprints and middle distances respectively that the proverbial handkerchief could have covered all of them at the finishes.

With the exception of Parnell, all of Victoria's Canadian team members developed their athletic abilities and skills in this city under the two coaches who will be in charge of them at Helsinki. Salmon and Hutchison, like Parnell, have enjoyed the advantages of high class American college competition and have been assisted by outside coaching. Yet, significantly, that later instruction has come to them merely as a supplement to the excellent grounding they received here.

However they may place in Helsinki, they have shown themselves to be among the top 32 stars in the nation. With other British Columbians they have gained a lion's share of places on the Canadian teams.

Their accomplishments in eastern Canada last week justify the warm and generous support accorded Victoria athletes by fellow citizens who donated so readily to the local Olympic fund. They stand as examples in sportsmanship and ability to a host of young people who have the same opportunities and facilities to develop as they did.

As the townspeople wish them well in their bids for international honors, there are grounds for quiet satisfaction here over the conditions and personalities which combine to make Victoria and British Columbia important in the amateur sporting world.

Atomic Coming of Age

THE BOOMING OF EXPERIMENTAL atomic bombs and loud conjectures as to when they may be used in earnest tend to drown out more hopeful reports of mankind's use of the atom.

But bit by bit the picture of the atomic age is being assembled, like the pieces of a jigsaw puzzle. From Britain the occasional word of progress in producing electric current from an atomic pile; from Canada encouraging items regarding cobalt "bombs" and other radioactive materials for medical use; from the United States periodic disclosures of new applications of atomic energy in industry, agriculture, medicine and science.

The latest evidence from the latter country was the recent ceremony in which President Truman laid the keel of a submarine that will be powered by atomic energy. The act highlighted many months of work by United States scientists and technicians, and the apparently successful completion of their efforts to reduce the heretofore unwieldy dimensions of atomic plants to a practicable size.

Admittedly the first application of the new type of power plant will be in a ship of war. This is understandable in view of the armament drive and the greater readiness to expend large sums on studies designed to increase the national security.

But the possibilities are obvious. The power unit that will drive a submarine should also be usable in other types of craft. And although the submarine engine need not conform to the dictates of economy, provided it achieves its prime objective of usefulness, there can be little doubt that this new development will be followed by improvements that will make such machines commercially feasible.

We have talked much of the atomic age and its wonders. Most of us will be well into that age before we realize it actually has arrived. The bomb, which started it off, may yet become a by-product.

Sordid Story in Vancouver

THE JOINT R.C.M.P.-VANCOUVER City Police investigation of narcotics use by teenagers on the mainland has disclosed at least two grim facts. Young girls have been taking drugs "just for the kick" and the narcotics have been supplied by peddlers at prices from $5 to $6 a "fix."

Young people, little more than children, have exposed themselves to addiction presumably from a thrill-seeking curiosity and a desire to appear "smart." In the process they have taken the risk of becoming physically dependent on narcotics which, apart from their own injurious effect, can only be obtained by them through illegal channels at prices they cannot afford.

Authorities on the subject have pointed out repeatedly that narcotics cause a peculiar change in bodily functions which create a constant demand for them. Addiction is not merely a condition of the mind. Anti-bodies are created which require certain and increasing doses to counteract.

Once under the influence of this physical condition, the addict takes narcotics to regain temporarily his state of physical well-being equivalent at best to normal health.

The story of addiction and its relationship to crime and other vice need not be labored. When the physical dependence on narcotics has taken all the addict's money, he or she must find more conventional sources from which those funds come.

The tragic folly of Vancouver girls who have tried drugs "just for the kick" becomes immediately apparent. Others may be protected from a similar course by public knowledge of addiction, and by energetic prosecution of "pushers" and those who make commercial profit from this traffic in degradation.

Not Quite Down to Our Last Yacht

AT ITS MEETING LAST WEEK THE city council approved expenditure of $5,000 for a new float in the Inner Harbor to accommodate visiting yachts. The money for that job will be taken from the contingency fund, according to present arrangements.

The float should be a desirable acquisition. It should encourage visitors coming to Victoria in their own vessels to sail almost into the heart of town, where they may do their shopping to the benefit of local businesses.

The installation is described as a float with the main deck paralleling the retaining wall and four "fingers" extending out into the harbor. Obviously this is the warm hand of welcome extended to the tourists, with the thumb pointing up to the merchants whose tourist trade helps to pay city taxes.

The project, from that point of view, seems to be the "splendid idea." Mayor Harrison called it when the plan was broached.

At the same time, the council, which apparently can find in the contingency fund $5,000 for this undertaking, could not, when it was setting its budget at the beginning of May, find $3,500 for the Community Chest. It could not find $2,000 for the Victoria Symphony Society; or $1,000 for the Arts Centre. It was unable to make its customary grants of $2,200 to the Y.M.C.A., $1,800 to the Y.W.C.A., $1,000 to the Red Cross, $1,000 to the Salvation Army, $650 to the Sea Cadets, $500 to the Solarium, $350 to the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, or $300 to the Victoria Musical Art Society.

It is argued that worthwhile causes will acquire the funds needed to keep good agencies going anyhow—that they won't be mortally injured by the withdrawal of city financial support. The money, the argument runs, will be found somewhere. And where will it be found? Largely, we submit, in the slimming pockets of citizens who also pay taxes to build contingency funds from which the council may take sums to construct a new yachting float.

BOB RUARK SAYS:

Fish and Poker Aid Philosophy

RESTIGOUCHE RIVER, New Brunswick.—They tell me we are here to investigate the spawning habits of the Atlantic salmon, a creature as easily determined as any wife. So far we have investigated the nesting habits of the busted flush and the vast economic potential of spit-in-the-ocean, or seven-card pete.

The average male is a strange creature, indeed, for going to so much trouble to play a little penny-ante poker in rustic surroundings. Perhaps we may fish, but poker we will certainly play. And it will be non-serious poker, in which money is not the object, and nobody stands to get hurt for as much as 10 bucks. Half the expended energy would make us all rich if we put it to a nobler cause.

WHY the simple game of stud should be enhanced by the presence of black flies and an odd breed of gnat called "no-see-ums" is way beyond me. It is possible to play poker in a city, under air-conditioned surroundings, but a great many people feel it necessary to make a pilgrimage to far places before they are free to sit down under a smoky lamp and say, "Deal."

Unless you play it with pros for prohibitive stakes, poker is one of the duller games man ever invented from a stunted imagination. Craps is simpler; the action is uncluttered by psychology or the necessity of arguing over who didn't catch the last raise. In craps you roll 'em and boom! There you are or there you ain't.

BUT POKER has been the symbol of man's escape from dread domesticity, as his penchant for growing whiskers on a fishing trip is indicative of his resentment of the morning shave as a sign of social conformation. It is actually easier to shave than it is to cultivate a crop of bristles. Whiskers itch and tickle and collect sweat. They turn and rend you after the third day, rooting back into the skin and raising pustules on your Adam's apple.

If you tell the old lady firmly that you are going to play poker with the boys as a steady habit she will damn you as a wastrel and a scoundrel of domestic duties, and regard you with the hard eye when you come aboard a little loaded and better than a bit busted. But she will smile and urge you on if the poker is accompanied by an excursion into the insect-ridden jungles.

PEOPLE take a little drink on fishing trips, too, and drinkine is often frowned on unless bolstered by sunburn and chigger-bites. Then it is committed in the name of health, and of setting farther away from it all and out in the great outdoors. Again the fish is the whipping boy; he takes the blame for man's basic irresponsibility, and everybody is happy except possibly the poor fish.

If you fish at all, it is a business of getting up early when you like to sleep late. It is a business of being wet when you prefer to be dry. It is a business of fishhooks caught in the fingers and poison ivy and sunburned noses and expensive equipment and arduous travel, all for a dumb, scaly creature that makes you work harder for him than you work for a living.

BUT YOU court the fish, even if you just throw him back and do not care to eat him, more assiduously than you court the maid of your heart's choice. In a backlash of resentment toward regimentation, the fish gets you out of the house and away from the job; he allows you to play poker when you do not wish to play poker from general preference. He is the final excuse you make to yourself for being the sloth you actually are.

OF FISHING I will say: It has introduced me to some new poker. We got a game up here on the Restigouche where a busted straight or a busted flush—four cards and then the clinker—now beats an honest pair. This is Canada's gesture of resentment to American inflation.

Not only is the United States buck inferior to the Canadian dollar in actual exchange, but they have had to remodel the gambling game of draw poker to fit its diminishing values. Now we cannot open on less than three of a kind, with the three wild. But four lousy hearts will whip a pair of aces, and that I never thought to see in a democracy.

Not So Dumb

New Statesman and Nation
SOMEWHERE between the indifference of saying too much and the insolence of saying nothing at all, the path of legal loquacity runs safe and inconspicuous for the ordinary man. The judges and the magistrates are constantly dealing with people who say too much.

Much more rarely, they find a man before them who utters no sound; and they proceed to find out whether he is insolent or dumb, "mute of malice" or "mute of the visitation of God."

In a recent case a Polish defendant laid open his mouth to speak exactly six weeks before trial, when he said "Oh?" to a policeman's accusation of theft. Was he playing possum, or was he really dumb?

Our forebears would have settled this, in the great tradition of the common law, by patiently crushing him to death under a growing pile of weights (the peine forte et dure); the theory being that a prisoner who really could speak would do so before it got too heavy.

Today, it is a question for a jury, which is empaneled there and then from among the people present in court. If the evidence satisfies the jury that the dumbness is not feigned, the further question arises whether the defendant will be able to understand subsequent proceedings. But if they decide that he is "mute of malice," then the trial goes on as if he had pleaded "not guilty."

London Sessions decided that the silent Pole could talk if he would, found him guilty, and gave him six months. The world is overfull of people who talk too little; but you can, I suppose, talk too little.

Question Mark Elephant

As Our Readers See It

THE TAPPERS

With the rapid growth of all these new apartment blocks, it is to be hoped there will be a big demand for bedroom slippers. The best built blocks cannot entirely eliminate the noise of the "tapping heel," and to other tenants trying to rest the loud and rapid tap is very upsetting, and it is amazing how few women remove outdoor shoes and change to quieter ones, when they live in suites.

promises were made by him then, or at any other time, nor was he in the habit of doing so. He did criticize the government and advocate improvements for his riding.

Regarding P.R. H. B. Apperley is a little off the beam. We do not happen to have P.R. but rather the alternative vice, which I think is very fair and worked well.

JAMES FRANCE.

3223 Quadra Street.

FREE SPEECH

What an opportunity for Victoria citizens to hear Dr. Endicott's views on the Korean situation, from his own lips, and form their own opinion of his experience and peace work from the source! To date, radio announcements and press reports are strongly colored by the commentators' or press correspondents' own bias.

Freedom of thought and speech so far, are still our privilege. At a time like this, in a world of confusion, let us insist on these privileges for ourselves and for others.

S. SMITH.

1408 Walnut Street.

YACHT FLOAT

Your paper reports that the city council has decided to build a $5,000 float in the inner harbor, for tourists to moor their yachts. Now, how does the council find money for this when it is reportedly so broke that it was necessary to discontinue its grants to such valuable causes as the Arts Centre, Victoria Symphony Orchestra, Sea Cadets, and several other valuable agencies?

Do the mayor and company think our youth will better be served by being treated to the sight of a few yachts, or by having the opportunity to receive the training in good citizenship and practical knowledge available through the Sea Cadets? It is a disgrace to spend money on this project while many needed agencies go begging.

It is time the council ran things for the good of this city's inhabitants, instead of the good of Chamber of Commerce members. These tourists no doubt do spend some money here in the short time of their visits, but I, and thousands like me, spend all my money here all year round. It is time we got some thought.

The council should also consider that any tourist who owns a yacht can afford a little more fuel to move back out of the harbor to moor elsewhere. This they will undoubtedly do as soon as they get a whiff of Victoria's "atmosphere" at low tide.

I urge every taxpayer to write a protest to the council demanding that his money be spent on more worthwhile things—firemen, for instance. Remember, 142 people stopped the auto race track at Thetis Lake. Surely enough citizens will make the effort to write one short letter, right away, to stop this wasteful, unnecessary spending. Come on taxpayers, get your pens and make yourselves heard.

Steady Nerves—And Perhaps Force

By JOSEPH and STEWART ALSOP
From Washington

SECRETARY of State Dean Acheson's little noticed mission to Europe has a simple, central object. This is to persuade America's frightened, ill-defended and divided European Allies to accept the risk of general war, rather than to abandon Berlin to renewed Soviet pressure.

There have been all sorts of signs in recent weeks that a new Soviet aggressive move may be in the offing, and on balance a second Berlin blockade, ostensibly initiated by the East German puppet government, has seemed the most likely move. Shortly before Acheson left for Europe, he took the leading part in forcing through the National Security Council, a crucial policy decision on the American response to such a move against Berlin.

Acheson took the position that Berlin could under no circumstances be abandoned to the Soviets, and the Council agreed. The Council also agreed that another airlift, undertaken with no end in sight, would be a defensive and inadequate response, especially since the Soviets can now wreck an airlift simply by jamming the radar at the Berlin airfields.

This left just one way to hold Berlin—by breaking any blockade by the direct use of military force.

Western Berlin now has sufficient stocks to carry the city, without an airlift, for about six months. Therefore a military showdown need not come immediately after a blockade is imposed.

Thus according to present intentions, the first step by the United States—and if Acheson's mission succeeds, by its Allies—would be to order full mobilization. In brief, the Western Allies would publicly prepare to fight a war, if necessary, rather than abandon Berlin.

Full mobilization by the West during the time provided by the West Berlin stockpiles would, of course, telegraph the punch to Moscow. But telegraphing the punch is thought to be actually desirable, simply because this would give the men in the Kremlin time to think again, and the policymakers still believe that the Soviets wish to avoid a full scale war.

This breathing spell would also provide time for final negotiations with the Russians. But these negotiations would be far different from those undertaken in 1948 by Gen. Belled Smith, then Ambassador to the Soviet Union. For this time the Western spokesmen would be armed with the warning that unless the blockade was lifted, military force would be used to break it.

Then, if these last attempts to negotiate failed, Western troops would be ordered to open the land corridor between Berlin and the West.

This, in broad outline, is the American position in Berlin, and it is Acheson's task to persuade Allies to agree to this position. Obviously, this is an immensely difficult task, calling for all Acheson's persuasive abilities. To break a Berlin blockade by armed force clearly involves the gravest possible risk of war, and the U.S. Allies, especially the French, simply are not prepared to fight a war. Nor, to put it bluntly, is the United States.

Yet no informed official in this country—or in Britain or France for that matter—doubts that abandonment of Berlin by the West would be an intolerable disaster, amounting virtually to outright defeat in the past believe that if our nerves hold steady, we can still avoid this disaster, without general war, if the Kremlin does strike at Berlin again.

Ups and Downs

By BRIAN TORIN

"MILLIONS," said the Elevator Man, "are spent these days building power plants, and other millions are spent on searching for still more ways of producing the stuff that turns wheels. But it looks like we've been neglecting a huge source of energy right in the old earth itself. Of course, there've been attempts now and then to harness the waves of the ocean, but we've never really got them working for us on a permanent wave—the tide. There's a big difference between what the wild waves are saying and what they're doing. But now a Texas scientist plans to use the heat from a Mexican volcano to produce electricity. That would be a big step forward. They'd be about as close as they can be to getting something for nothing. Except of course, there'd probably be a tax on it. Lower main!

"But," said the Elevator Man, "why stop there? The globe has a lot more uses in it than merely producing hot mud from a mountain with a hole in it. How about earthquakes? There's a great future for somebody who can harness this form of power and adapt it to rocking cradles, mixing milkshakes and cocktails, jarring ketchup bottles and giving scalp massages. Then take the spinning of the earth itself. Here's the biggest flywheel you can imagine whirling away and nobody has been able to put a drive belt on it yet. Atomic power would be peanuts in comparison if we could just set the big ball to turning wheels. That would be revolutionary. Gong up!

"And then," said the Elevator Man, "there's the really big source of power—old homo sapiens himself. Think of all the heat a huge roomful of people could produce. Think of all the motion that could be gathered from human gestures—millions of horsepower alone on election platforms. Think of the hundreds of thousands of people who sit down at least once an hour during the day, and then think of the hundreds of thousands of pump handles that could be worked by this means alone. We're overlooking some tremendous resources that ought to be put to work."

The Canadian Federation of Agriculture questions the enthusiastic prediction by an Alberta member of parliament that the petroleum industry in his province will supersede farming in importance before long. It cites Alberta government figures showing 1951 petroleum and natural gas production to be worth $120,078,000. In the same year the total value of agricultural production in Alberta was $767,323,000. Both field crops and livestock exceeded the output of the petroleum industry in value, the former in value.

Petition Valid

A petition calling for a referendum on closure of any fire hall is valid, Arthur Patton, city solicitor, has declared.

City firemen gathered a 10,000-name petition after City Council ordered closure of Yates Street fire hall and dismissed 10 men as an economy measure.

The petition contains 21.7 per cent of the total voters' list. Twenty per cent is required under the Municipal Act. The council, however, does not have to hold a referendum. Even if it does, council is not bound to act on the result.

Should a referendum be called, it will likely be held at the December elections, city hall officers believe.

Endicott Accuses United States of "Falsehood" in Korea

By MONTE ROBERTS

James G. Endicott, chairman of the Canadian Peace Congress, crammed a multiple load in his verbal shotgun Monday night and aimed it at the United States. Speaking in Victoria Ballroom, Dr. Endicott covered a wide range of charges against western democracies, but concentrated most of his fire on the one nation. He accused the U.S.A. of "militaristic colonialism," of phony prisoner issues in Korea, of lying, of fraud and "absolute falsehood to prevent a truce in Korea."

Dr. Endicott addressed about 300 people, who paid admission of 50c each, and fired his accusations from a manuscript because, he said, he had been "misquoted so often."

The main portion of his two-hour speech led up to a reiteration of his charges that germ warfare is being waged by the United States against the peoples of China, but he used little time in documenting these charges, suggesting, instead, that listeners purchase a printed pamphlet which was said to give the "complete story."

Although he kept his sights on the United States, he had ammunition to spare for the press of Canada ("puppets controlled from a central source"). External Affairs Minister Lester B. Pearson ("he won't meet me in public debate") and Minister of Justice Stewart Carson ("trying to introduce McCarthyism into Canada").

He maintained that the United Nations must recognize the government of China, which is based on "the common program—a masterpiece of political intelligence. The common program is the basis of the new society in China."

He added "there is no reason why you cannot accept the new China. This government is strong with perhaps 98 per cent of the people of China."

"Our government must say there must be no war with China, no use of the atom bomb in China. China must be seated in the United Nations. Until we do so, no one in China or Africa will believe we are sincere in our desire for peace."

Labor Censure Motion Fails

U.K. Commons Upholds Churchill Government on Bombings in Korea

LONDON, July 2 (CP)—The House of Commons by a majority of 30 votes decided Tuesday night that the government was not to blame because it hadn't been told the Americans were going to bomb the Yalu River power plants in Korea.

The Commons rejected by a vote of 300 to 270 a somewhat mild Labor motion of censure, saying Winston Churchill's Conservative government was at fault in not securing U.S. consultation before the Yalu bombings.

The Labor party, particularly its left wing, strongly criticized the raids, claiming the attacks imperiled the Korean armistice talks and threatened all-out war with Red China.

Michael Foot, spokesman for the followers of left-winger Aneurin Bevan, said the motion was not strong enough. It should have challenged the very decision to make the raids. Many labor members want to do all in their power, Foot said, to prevent such an irresponsible thing happening in the future.

DEFENDS GOVERNMENT

Prime Minister Churchill defended the government in place of Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden who is ailing with jaundice. Churchill warned that the censure, while technically aimed at his government, "really falls on the United States."

Britain must not antagonize U.S. public opinion in a presidential year. Praising the "monumental patience" of Americans in Korea, the Prime Minister said: "There might easily come a time, especially during a presidential election, when a sharp reaction of emotion and even anger might sweep large sections of the American people and any candidate for the presidency who gave full vent to it might gain considerable advantage."

Rhee Guarantees Personal Safety of His Opponents

PUSAN, Korea, July 2 (AP).—President Syngman Rhee today guaranteed the personal safety of his political opponents against attack or arrest as long as they obey the law.

"I personally guarantee the safety of everyone who is faithful and loyal to the republic, even those who may consider themselves political opponents," Rhee said.

He said he had heard reports that presidential candidates "are in fear of being molested," and national assemblymen are "afraid of appearing in public for fear they might be attacked or apprehended."

Churchill said there were many Americans who thought China more important than Europe.

"It would be a very great misfortune if that line of thought were to prevail. It might easily lead to the ruin of the whole European structure of defense which is being built up with so much effort and sacrifice and would expose us all to the mortal danger of war and destruction."

WOULD BE MISTAKE

"We in this country are convinced it would be a great mistake, with Europe in its present position, for the U.N. or the United States as their champion to be involved in a war with the Communist government inside China."

"I can only hope the American people will not suppose that the House of Commons is unfriendly to them and that we are simply naggers."

During the debate the government announced that a senior British officer—identity to be revealed soon—had been chosen deputy chief of staff to Gen. Mark Clark, commander of U.N. forces in Korea. This, State Minister Selwyn Lloyd said, would assure the British government of advance knowledge of important new war operations.

Assemblymen last week were held captive for several hours in their own meeting hall by a mob of Rhee supporters. Police finally forced the crowd back. Since Rhee proclaimed martial law around Pusan May 25 at least 14 assemblymen have been arrested and charged with various offenses. Twenty have gone into hiding. Rhee and the one-House assembly have been feuding over the president's demand that the constitution be changed to provide for a two-House congress and election of the president by popular vote instead of by the assembly.

MAJOR U.S. RADIO NETWORKS HIT BY WALKOUT OF WRITERS

NEW YORK, July 2 (AP).—The Independent Radio Writers' Guild called a strike today against three major networks. The guild said the walk-out would disrupt broadcast coverage of the Republican and Democratic conventions in Chicago.

However, all three networks—NBC, CBC and ABC—said their news programs would not be interrupted.

Soon after the midnight strike call, pickets appeared outside NBC studios in Rockefeller Centre.

All three networks said supervisory personnel would bolster the staffs and that all scheduled programs would be aired.

Chief stumbling block in the dispute is a guild demand for extra commercial fees for staff newswriters on sponsored newscasts.

British Radio Operator Denies Treason Charge

LONDON, July 2 (AP).—William Martin Marshall, 24-year-old foreign office radio operator, pleaded innocent today to charges of slipping state secrets to a Russian diplomat. His trial was set for July 9.

The tall, sallow-faced youth entered his plea at a brief hearing in the central criminal court. London's famous Old Bailey. It was there in March, 1950, that atomic scientist Klaus Fuchs was sentenced to 14 years' imprisonment for betraying U.S. and British bomb secrets to the Russians.

Marshall was accused on five counts. Three charged him with giving information "useful to an enemy" about the British diplomatic wireless service to Pavel Kuznetsov, second secretary of the Soviet Embassy in London. The fourth count accused him of obtaining such information and the fifth of recording similar state secrets.

Marshall was in the dock only four minutes.

The accused youth formally served as a diplomatic radio operator in the British Embassy in Moscow. Since the start of the year he has been working at the British Foreign Office radio station at Hanslope Park, about 40 miles from London.

At a previous hearing, a government prosecutor charged that the young radio operator, when arrested June 13, was carrying information which could have been useful to an enemy and which he had no authority to have.

Daily Times Cup Now 18 Years Old; First Prize in All-Sooke Baby Show

Special to The Times
SOOKE, July 2—Victoria Daily Times Trophy for the best baby in the annual All-Sooke Day baby show will "come of age" during the celebration on July 26 at Sooke River flats. In 1934, when the first large-scale All-Sooke Day was held, the trophy was presented to the winner for the first time by Archie Wills, then managing editor of the paper.

Interest in the baby show since then has never lagged, and entries average about 60 tots of 18 months and under. Dr. Russell B. Robertson of Victoria has judged all but the first few shows, and until her death this spring, Mrs. M. Robertson, Saseenos, had been in charge of the show since its inception.

This year Mrs. R. G. Nixon, Sooke, member of the Sooke School District 62 Health Board and Sooke and North Sooke Women's Institute, will be convener of the event.

Babies from any rural district are eligible. The Times trophy goes to the best baby in the show, and there are special prizes for the best Sooke baby, and the best baby of six months and younger.

Entries may be made at the show's tent up to 2.45 p.m. on All-Sooke Day, and judging will start at 3 p.m.

City Cricketers Bow To Mainland Rep Side

IT'S MY VIEW

By BILL WALKER, Sports Editor

Operator 13 burst into the office bright and early Monday morning with two sad tales of woe. One concerned the bet he didn't make at Lansdowne race track. The other, the Tyees.

But let the superstitious sleuth tell his own story. "I go up to the wicket, see. I'm late and haven't got time to look at a program or anything. I'm standing in front of the $2 win wicket all set to bet on No. 2. That's my system. Bet on No. 2 until it comes in."

"Well, there's a guy in front of me and as I glance over his shoulder I see No. 1 is a horse I know. No. 2, Best Results, I never heard of, see? So I bet on No. 1."

"Who wins? No. 2, and the son of a biscuit pays off at $87."

"Well, I'm down in my sorrows and I pick up this rag. You'd never guess where!"

"And Lordy doo is this guy crying in his beer over the Tyees. They've lost a double-header it seems, their first of the season. And he's got 'em in a slump. It says: 'Tyees, probably at their worst this season, could do nothing right, and the Senators nothing wrong. Then I look at the scores and see the Tyees get only two runs in each game. Their FIRST series, mind.'"

"Well, I'm no Capilano fan, but I know they got a good ball club and are likely to win anytime."

"And heavens above, this guy is so low, he could play pinocchle with a worm and still look up to his opponent. He's wondering when and if this losing is going to stop."

"I think that one over a while and suddenly the New York Giants come to mind. Chessit, but didn't they lose sumpin' like 13 games in a row last year and still win the pennant."

"Well, I can't figure it out. Sure I know the Tyees have been gettin' along on a five-man pitchin' corps—there isn't a quinter that can match their record in the league. Why the tears with the season still halfway to go? That's what gets me."

"Then he says: 'There are reasons to believe it (the slump) may last for some time.' He mentions Portland and injuries and all that stuff. Doesn't say though that even with two regular infielders out, the Tyees kept right on winnin'."

"But by now he's got me worried, too. Especially when he says as much as says that manager Cec Garriott had better start hittin' again. And I thought the Tyees as a club were once leading the league in hittin'. And this Garriott... I hear tell that he's a pretty popular guy, whether he's hittin' or not. Why, when he isn't hittin' he's gettin' on base. This guy admits that and then says nobody can drive Garriott in."

"First, he wants Garriott to hit more to get on base, and then everybody else to hit more 'cause Garriott's getting on base without hittin'. That I don't figure, though naturally all other teams like to have everybody hittin', too."

"Oh, he ties it up good. There's lots of 'ifs' and 'buts' and he even says 'maybe it's not so bad after all.'"

"That makes me feel better until I see this letter. He says he's really in his cups. Everything has gone wrong again. He says he's lost his 'incentive' as the Tyees have lost again. The score was 2-1. What incentive? say I."

BECK HURLS FINAL VICTORY

Chinooks Win Ball Tourney

Victoria Chinooks arrived back in Victoria late Tuesday night, prouder, richer and more famous than when they first entered the annual Dominion Day baseball tournament at Courtenay, sponsored by the Courtenay Native Sons.

Getting razor-sharp pitching all the way, Chinooks breezed through the other entrants to win the tournament trophy and first money with three wins and no losses.

Left-hander Don McKinnon was in peak form in the semi-final Tuesday afternoon as he set Campbell River down with seven hits as Chinooks won 8-3.

McKinnon gave up all three runs in the first inning, but blanked Campbell River over the rest of the game.

FEDERATION ATTACK

Chinooks came back with two runs in their half of the first and went ahead to stay with a four-run uprising in the second inning. Playing coach Doug Peden was the big gun in the Chinook attack, batting in three runs with a triple and double. Outfielder Ed Shepherd added a double.

Chinooks went against Courtenay Legion in the evening final and Peden chose Paul Beck to do the pitching.

Beck scattered six hits while his mates pounced on three Courtenay pitchers for 11 hits and a 12-3 victory that clinched the title.

Ken Wright led the attack with three hits and five runs batted in while Don McGee picked up three hits and Ed Dorohoy chipped in with a payoff triple.

Following the victory, Chinooks were presented with the tournament trophy and the winner's share of the $1,000 purse.

Pitcher Bill Prior, who won the first game of the meet 1-0 for Chinooks, was presented with a special prize for recording the most strikeouts, 13.

Close to 2,000 fans saw each game.

Tops Uplands Invitation Day

A field of 69 women took part in the recent invitation day competition at Uplands Golf Club.

Among the home players, Mrs. E. Livestone carded a net 79 to win the medal round in the medal round and Mrs. F. Walton won the bronze division with a net 75. Mrs. Whyte won the silver division with a net 75, while Mrs. W. Rasmussen won the bronze division with net 23.

For the visitors, Mrs. Thirwell of Gorge Vale won the silver division of the medal round with a net 80 and Mrs. McCrae of Victoria Golf Club won the bronze with her net 75.

In the visitors' highest hole competition, Miss M. Mahoney of Colwood was silver division winner with net 26 and Mrs. F. Norris of Victoria Golf Club had a net 25 to win the bronze division.

Takes Honors

Gorge Vale club champion Shirley Fry carded an 83 to win low gross honors in the women's medal round for golfers with 15 and under handicaps at Victoria Golf Club Monday.

Miss Fry tied with Mrs. V. S. Godfrey for low net, both posting 78's. Low net runner-up was Mrs. W. Erickson with an 80.

OLYMPIC TRACK TEAM CRITICIZED

Eastern 'Sour Grapes'

Special to The Times

HAMILTON, Ont.—Canada's newly-appointed Olympic track and field team came in for its first round of criticism from eastern sports writers Monday, just 24 hours after its announcement—or as soon as the next papers hit the presses.

In cries that had a slight tinge of sour grapes, the Olympic selection committee was denounced in emphatic terms.

The biggest beef was from Toronto, where two girls who set Canadian records were left at home. Officials commented that the selected team had more chances to score points than world competition. Even Victoria's Dawn Josephs, a standard maker in the broad jump and a tie winner in the high jump, received a round of gripes. Dawn was selected as the third girl on the seven-woman team. One paper accused the selection committee of "just missing to keep B.C. happy."

Classy Doug Clement, picked to run a lap in the 1,600-metre relay team, received a jolt when his selection was said to be one of those to keep the west happy. Clement was only tenths off the standard and is essential, according to Bruce Humber, "in order to have a 1,600-metre relay team."

The thorn in the east's side was the failure of George Lynch and Don Scott McEwan to make the team. McEwan did not finish his race and Lynch was second in his, far below the standard. Meanwhile Olympic coach Bruce Humber refused to comment on any criticism the team had received. "It's a better team than in 1948 I feel, and certainly the best 16-man team that could have been chosen. I have nothing else to say."

Humber and his B.C. athletes spent Monday at Niagara Falls as guests of the Ontario Athletic Commission. Manager Jack Histed arranged the special tour.

"The team certainly has no managerial worries," said Humber, "Jack is more than any coach could ask for. Not only Histed but the whole city of Hamilton have been wonderful to us. The B.C. team members who will meet the rest of the squad in Montreal on Thursday, couldn't have a higher morale. They're fine kids and I'm sure we'll have no trouble with any of the team," Bruce said.

The British Columbia tracksters were thrilled at their first view of the falls and Niagara Peninsula.

They ate at Queenston Heights at the Brock memorial. Quipped Bill Parnell, Victoria "Y" distance ace between mouthfuls of a large steak, "if General Brock ate here on his charge through he sure didn't go hungry."

On another occasion the team was being shown the extensive fruit belt. Sprinter Bob Hutchison inquired if that was the vineyard the Globe and Mail reporters spent their spare time in. "Looks like they're plenty of sour grapes in that field," he said.

"In all my 16 years of baseball I've never yet seen a team that didn't run into rough luck somewhere along the line."

These were manager Cec Garriott's words before the Tyees split the July 1 double bill with Wenatchee Chiefs Tuesday.

And they never came truer than in the nightcap as Bill Stites edged Cal McIrvine, 3-1, in a brilliant pitching duel after Jehosiah Heard had blanked the Chiefs in the afternoon, 11-0.

Stites was "Mr. Rough" in person as McIrvine, back from Portland for, as general manager Reg Patterson says, "I don't know how long," cracked first in the ninth, the Chiefs scoring two runs on three singles, a bases on balls and a squeeze bunt to break a 1-1 tie.

Stites blazed six pitches past Granny Gladstone and Chuck Abernathy in the ninth for two strikeouts and got Lito Marucci on a ground ball to preserve his four-hitter.

Don Pries singled home the lone Victoria run in the fourth, scoring Gladstone who had been hit painfully on the elbow by a pitched ball.

The game was held up for 10 minutes while Gladstone's injury was treated, but he completed the game, his threatened loss being averted.

A triple by Ross McCormack set up the first Wenatchee run in the third, McCormack scoring on Bill Cleveland's infield out.

A walk to Lyle Palmer started the trouble in the ninth. Bud Hjelma singled Palmer to third on a hit-run play, Laurie Munroe singled to score Palmer and Hjelma scored on Norm Ridgeway's squeeze bunt.

The Tyees lost a glorious chance to take the lead in the eighth when Jim Clark overslid third base with one out while attempting to advance as a pitch escaped catcher Rip Robinson.

It was a tough loss for McIrvine who had matched Stites until the ninth, but a deserving victory for the rangy Wenatchee right-hander.

A triple by Ross McCormack set up the first Wenatchee run in the third, McCormack scoring on Bill Cleveland's infield out.

A walk to Lyle Palmer started the trouble in the ninth. Bud Hjelma singled Palmer to third on a hit-run play, Laurie Munroe singled to score Palmer and Hjelma scored on Norm Ridgeway's squeeze bunt.

The Tyees lost a glorious chance to take the lead in the eighth when Jim Clark overslid third base with one out while attempting to advance as a pitch escaped catcher Rip Robinson.

It was a tough loss for McIrvine who had matched Stites until the ninth, but a deserving victory for the rangy Wenatchee right-hander.

REVAMPED LINE-UP

Rocks Meet Indians; Dominate Point Race

Victoria Shamrock coach Arnold Ferguson will watch tonight's Shamrock-P.N.E. Indian game at Memorial Arena from the bench but will have little spare time as he must juggle his line-up to fill in for injuries.

Ferguson will be out for a month as a result of a shoulder separation received in Nanaimo the night before last. He will be out for one more week with a similar injury.

Ferguson stated this morning that Bob Long would be brought in to work with Len Scott on one defensive unit, and Duff McCaghey and Norm Baker would make up the other pairing.

VICTORY NEEDED

A win for the Rocks, who have yet to lose at home, would lift them into first place over Vancouver and New Westminster with whom they are currently tied with 20 points each. Indians have beaten Victoria twice in Vancouver.

Latest statistics show that Victoria players hold the lions' share of honors, both defensively and offensively.

Playing steady ball since he was named regular goalie, Jim Hetherington has taken over as the top goalie in the league with a .737 stopping average in 11

Capilano, Indians Lose; Doubleheader Set Tonight

Wenatchee 0, 3, Victoria 11, 1

BY BILL WALKER

"In all my 16 years of baseball I've never yet seen a team that didn't run into rough luck somewhere along the line."

These were manager Cec Garriott's words before the Tyees split the July 1 double bill with Wenatchee Chiefs Tuesday.

And they never came truer than in the nightcap as Bill Stites edged Cal McIrvine, 3-1, in a brilliant pitching duel after Jehosiah Heard had blanked the Chiefs in the afternoon, 11-0.

Stites was "Mr. Rough" in person as McIrvine, back from Portland for, as general manager Reg Patterson says, "I don't know how long," cracked first in the ninth, the Chiefs scoring two runs on three singles, a bases on balls and a squeeze bunt to break a 1-1 tie.

Stites blazed six pitches past Granny Gladstone and Chuck Abernathy in the ninth for two strikeouts and got Lito Marucci on a ground ball to preserve his four-hitter.

Don Pries singled home the lone Victoria run in the fourth, scoring Gladstone who had been hit painfully on the elbow by a pitched ball.

The game was held up for 10 minutes while Gladstone's injury was treated, but he completed the game, his threatened loss being averted.

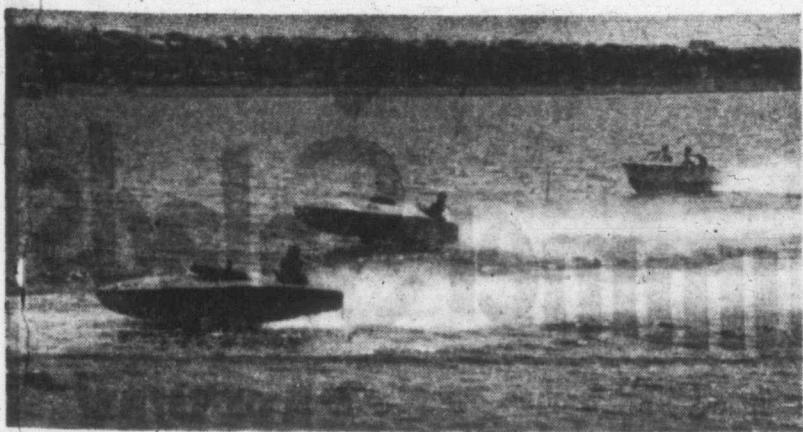

A triple by Ross McCormack set up the first Wenatchee run in the third, McCormack scoring on Bill Cleveland's infield out.

A walk to Lyle Palmer started the trouble in the ninth. Bud Hjelma singled Palmer to third on a hit-run play, Laurie Munroe singled to score Palmer and Hjelma scored on Norm Ridgeway's squeeze bunt.

The Tyees lost a glorious chance to take the lead in the eighth when Jim Clark overslid third base with one out while attempting to advance as a pitch escaped catcher Rip Robinson.

City Driver Leads Racing Runabouts at Lagoon

Will Gouge's Little Toot, of Victoria, took lead going into first turn during heat for racing runabouts at Esquimalt Lagoon Tuesday, followed by Harold Whitehead, of Victoria, in D-Tor, and Grant Hall, Vancouver, in Hi-Baller. Gouge was declared winner on points at conclusion of two heats.

Jim Hutchinson Takes Dominion Day Race Title

By DON INGHAM

An estimated 3,500 fans saw Vancouver's Jim Hutchinson continue his domination of high-speed boat racing in British Columbia Tuesday afternoon at Esquimalt Lagoon.

Weather was perfect for the meet, sponsored jointly by Victoria Inboard-Outboard Association and Queen Alexandra Sailing League.

A high wind in the straits ruffled the lagoon just enough to give the racers the little bounce that adds miles to their speed.

Driving Teaser III, consistent winner of Mainland races, Hutchinson was forced out when a metal plate on the rear planing surface pulled loose during the race for 135-cubic-inch hydroplanes. His running mate, Barry Moore in Teaser II, also owned by Hutchinson, went on to win the heat.

Hutchinson then took over the wheel of the "Two," and copped the final heat for the 135's.

The crowd was disappointed when Teaser III broke down in a welter of foam and a near dive to the bottom of the lagoon.

The little ship has been credited with a lively 93 m.p.h. on the straight, but with a broken propeller, sprung shaft and dislodged strut it was out of the running for the rest of the day.

Miss Fire, driven by Dick Mendith of Vancouver, placed second among the high-speed 135's, and Brock Robertson of Victoria ran consistently to finish third.

ROBERTSON TAKES FIRST

Robertson finished first in the Totem Trophy race for all classes and Will Gouge, driving Little Toot, took the Brock Whitney Trophy for highest points. Harry Adams in Witch's Taxi was winner of the Harrison Trophy for Class B runabouts.

Little Toot also took the racing runabout class in two hard-fought heats. In the second heat he finished only a length ahead of Harold Whitehead of Victoria, driving D-Tor, who picked up almost half a lap after a rough start to chase the winner over the finish line.

When the points were added up Grant Hall of Vancouver was second with the smooth-running Hi-Baller and D-Tor finished third.

Little Toot also won the stock runabout event — the "cracker box" class — with Commodore Bob Watson of the V.I.O.A. second in Saw-Sea. Witch's Taxi placed third.

Fred Graham won the race for A and B outboard, with Jack Spalding and Cort Cressy second and third.

Kermit "Camie" Cameron, who has been racing outboards around the Pacific Northwest since 1932, raced his C Class runabout with the inboards for lack of competition.

Minute Men Come to Fore

Relief Pitchers Dominate Majors; Brooks, Yanks Win

Baseball's unsung minute men—the relief pitchers—should feel mighty proud of themselves today.

Ranging from the superlative 11 and 10-inning chores of Satchel Paige and Lou Brissie, respectively, to the two-inning effort of Ted Wilks, the performances Tuesday of no fewer than seven rescue workers were magnificent.

Here is a rundown of how the relievers shone as only two of the 16 starters went the distance:

1. Brissie and Paige—Hooked up in a spectacular pitching duel from the 10th inning on with Brissie and Cleveland finally defeating St. Louis Browns in a record-tying 19-inning night game, 4-3. Brissie relieved Bob Feller in the 10th and hurled nine scoreless innings before yielding a tally in the top of the 19th. Paige pitched 10 runless frames after replacing Ned Garver in the ninth, but weakened in the 19th as the Indians scored twice.

starter went the route, Vic Raschi pitched the Yankees to a 3-2 triumph over Boston Red Sox and Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell hurled St. Louis Cardinals to a 8-3 decision over Cincinnati Reds.

Bobby Brown, notified before the game to report for duty as a doctor in the army on July 9, doubled Mickey Mantle home from first in the eighth to snap a 2-2 tie and hand Boston's Dizzy Trout his seventh defeat.

Enos Slaughter paced the Cards, driving in five runs. The five R.B.I.'s gave Slaughter a total of 1,001 for his big league career, which began with the Cards in 1938. Only Bob Elliott of New York Giants has more in the National League, boasting a 1,121 total.

Johnny Mize of New York and Vern Stephens of Boston, among the active American League hitters, also are over the 1,000 R.B.I. total.

In its Cleveland victory, Bobby Avila opened the last half of the 19th with a single and scored the tying run on Al Rosen's one-out double. After Larry Doby made the second out, pinch-hitter Hank Majeski singled to score Rosen with the payoff run.

TYEES BOOST CROWD MARK

Victoria Tyees played to 5,048 baseball fans Tuesday to boost their season's attendance mark to 50,804 for 34 home games.

This is an increase of 26,575 over last year or approximately 78 per cent and an average per game of 1,758.

WHITE SOX EDGED

6. Fred Hutchinson—Stopped a Chicago three-run uprising in the second inning and pitched seven scoreless frames until he tired in the ninth as Detroit rallied to down the White Sox, 6-4.

In the two games where the

Ladysmith Gains Final

A brilliant piece of relief pitching by 320-pound Tiny Monday, Forest Products scored Uloga gave Ladysmith a 4-2 victory over B.C. Forest Products in the semi-final of the Ladysmith Club softball tournament at Ladysmith Tuesday.

In the morning Forest Products defeated Army of the Senior B League 11-3 to advance to the semi-finals.

Forest Products held a 2-0 lead going into the seventh inning but Ladysmith got to pitcher Bud Ross for three runs and added a singleton in the eighth to take a 4-2 lead.

In the bottom of the ninth Forest Products loaded the bases with none out and Ladysmith derrickd Ken Allen in favor of Uloga. Uloga threw three straight strikes to retire Jeff Worrall and forced Mickey Smith to ground into a game-ending double play.

Ladysmith will now meet Pitzer and Nex in the final Saturday at 7 at Ladysmith.

Rolfe Said on Way Out As Manager of Tigers

DETROIT, July 2 (AP).—It appeared pretty certain today that Red Rolfe is going to be fired as manager of the Detroit Tigers. Still undecided was the choice of a new manager for the last-place American League club.

Rolfe, nearly everybody agreed, is going to get the axe Saturday. And he appeared resigned to his fate.

Walter (Spike) Briggs, president of the Detroit club, has called a meeting of his board of directors for 5 p.m. Saturday. Briggs said he will go before the directors and recommend a change of managers for the rest of the 1952 season.

Briggs said he also will recommend that coach Dick Bartell be released. But he said he did not know who the new manager will be.

Briggs said that Tiger coach Ted Lyons definitely will be considered for interim manager. He added "there also are several other men whose names will be submitted for consideration."

Rumors have been current for some time that Rolfe was on his way out as the Tigers became mired deeper in the cellar. It was understood he was given a reprieve to see what he could do during the Tigers' home stand but the team has failed to show any real signs of coming to life although they gave Rolfe a 6-4

CAPTAIN EWING LANDS GOLD-BUTTON SALMON

Who said gold-button winning salmon had become something of the past in Saanich Inlet?

Capt. J. K. Ewing, Victoria, showed that isn't so when he boated a 43½-pound, gold-button-winning spring at the Goldstream end of the inlet Monday evening after a stiff battle.

He had earlier qualified as a finalist in the 10-week derby now in progress in the inlet with a 5¼-pound specimen.

His newest catch was the biggest salmon caught there in two years.

Other big fish caught in the inlet during the last four days and entered in the derby are:

Henry Lou Poy, 25¼ pounds; H. Phillips, 23¼ pounds; H. Harrison, 20¾ pounds; Bill Stryg, 17¾ pounds; and Gordon Whiting, 16¼ pounds. Those who qualified in last week's weekly event in the mammoth derby will appear in the Victoria Times later in the week.

BRANCHES IN VANCOUVER AND IN 60 CITIES ACROSS CANADA

50 Canadian Scots Off Friday For Summer Camp on Mainland

By ROY THORSEN
Between 50 and 60 officers and men of the Canadian Scottish Regiment (Princess Mary's) leave here Friday en route to attend a 10-day summer camp at Vernon.

They will go through a program of training on a brigade scale. Scottish are with the 15th Infantry Brigade, reserve army. Lieut.-Col. J. Walter Mosedale, O.C., is endeavoring to get a naval ship to transport the Scots to Vancouver. Failing that, the training group will make the trip on the regular Vancouver steamer.

Some of the part-time soldiery will make the run to the Interior by car. Others will go by train. Camp opens Saturday, July 5, and closes July 13.

About 75 members of the Victoria Auxiliary Radar Squadron 2455, R.C.A.F., reserve, will take to the air for a Canada-wide flight July 19.

Sgt. Ldr. Phillip Holmes, commanding the unit, said members would be air-lifted to St. Hubert, Que., for the annual summer camp. He believes the lift will be from Victoria by R.C.A.F. planes. Montreal may be a stopping-off place, he hoped.

INSURANCE SERVICE

Second World War veterans and qualifying widows have been granted a time-limit extension to get in on the Veterans' Insurance scheme.

Published under the authority of Veterans Affairs Minister Hughes Lapointe, the report says that veterans and widows can qualify up to Dec. 31, 1954, or—in regard to the ex-serviceman—to 10 years after discharge, whichever is later.

Maximum insurance policy is for $10,000.

Scheme has been extended to veterans who qualify by having served in Korea.

With few exceptions policies may be obtained without medical examination and premiums may be paid from unused re-establishment credits, the minister says.

P.O. Ken Wilson, L.S. John Mahdiuk and A.B. James Scullion were among naval guests at a smoker held in the Gunners' Mess of the Royal Canadian School of Artillery last week.

The Red Triangle Review, directed by Miss Joan O'Neill, presented an entertaining concert. There was music by the Harmonettes, songs by Miss Dawn Draper and Roland Walsh and tap dancing by Miss Brenda Myron and Donald Leckie.

Arrangements for the smoker were made by Gunners Dick Purcell, Mike Dorothy and Ron James.

Four men from St. John's, Newfoundland, reserve naval division are taking an administrative writers' course at H.M.C.S. Naden. They are P.O. J. Walsh, O.S. C. Ayers, O.S. E. Burden and O.S. E. Rowsell.

Others taking same course are: L.S. R. S. Reid, Victoria; A.B. J. P. Durant and O.S. R. G. Gravelle, reserve division at Ottawa; O.S. J. P. Viss, Quebec reserve division; O.S. Earle Moscovitch, Winnipeg, and O.S. E. G. Mielke, Halifax.

P.O. and Mrs. Peter Meek are on a motoring trip to Winnipeg. He is on a 30-day leave. C.P.O. Joseph Gallo has returned to Winnipeg.

In the local naval reserve division, O.S. Sid Bentley left last week for summer training at H.M.C.S. Star, Hamilton, Ont. Two others who left Saturday by air for same establishment were O.S. Charles Jones and O.S. Stephen Hives.

When Joan Bayliss is flying to H.M.C.S. Cornwallis, near Halifax, for her annual two weeks of summer training and several weeks of special duties.

Lieut.-Cmdr. Harry Ferne, local lawyer, has taken a three-year short service appointment and is the new staff officer at Malahat, replacing Lieut. A. Bird, who is retiring from the R.C.N.

SWIM BY MAYOR, HORSE RODEO ENTERTAIN PARLEY DELEGATES

CALGARY, July 2 (CP).—Mayor Arthur Stone, of Moncton, N.B., won a $5 bet Tuesday night. He dove in a swimming pool almost fully clothed.

Mayor Stone's wager was made during a reception at the ranch home of wealthy oilman Frank McMahon of Calgary. The reception was given for delegates to the annual convention of the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities.

Bet $5 that he wouldn't take a dip, Mayor Stone removed his jacket and shoes and plunged into the pool. He swam the length of the pool and climbed out to the cheers of the other guests.

Earlier, the delegates saw a special rodeo staged in the corral of Mr. McMahon's ranch.

Peace Talks in Abeyance; Prisoner Issue Reviewed

MUNSAN, Korea, July 2 (AP).—The snarled Korean armistice talks are in recess for 24 hours at Communist request. The Reds gave no reason for asking cancellation of today's session, but the United Nations command immediately agreed.

The recess came just one day after Maj.-Gen. William K. Harrison Jr. painstakingly reviewed the April 28 Allied plan for exchange of prisoners and suggested that it offers the Communist a face-saving way to end the long stalemate.

There was no indication whether the Reds were re-studying their demand that all Allied-held prisoners be sent home or were drafting their own proposal for presentation Thursday.

The prisoner issue is the main block to an armistice. The Allies refuse to return prisoners who do not want to go home. The Reds want all military captives back.

Some observers here speculated that the Communists are studying carefully Harrison's lengthy review of the prisoner problem.

REVISE LISTS

In effect, the chief U.N. truce negotiator told the Reds the Allies would erase from their prisoner lists about 100,000 captives who say they will resist repatriation.

This would leave 70,000 to 80,000 Reds to be returned when an armistice is signed.

Harrison suggested that the U.N. plan would meet Communist specifications since war prisoners who refuse repatriation would be given some other classification and removed from the official roster.

The Reds then would get back what they have demanded—all of the war prisoners in Allied hands.

Harrison carefully pointed out to North Korean Gen. Nam Il that "in reviewing the situation as it exists today we are not making a new proposal."

Brig.-Gen. William Nuckols, U.N. spokesman, said the statement "merely points to the door leading to an armistice which always has been open, but which has been largely ignored by the Communists."

Early Morning Fire Subdued By Volunteers

Fingers of high-beam auto lights pushed through the darkness of Central Saanich at an early hour this morning as members of the districts' volunteer fire department left their beds to fight a bush fire on Benvenuto Road.

Speeding autos came from all directions to the scene of the fire, carrying close to 30 volunteers, some of whom wore only trousers over their night attire.

Under supervision of Fire Chief Victor Heal, the fire fighters had the blaze under control within an hour. Only a small area was burned.

For many of the volunteer firemen, it was the second alarm of the night. At 6.30 Tuesday evening the department was called to extinguish a small grass fire near Telegraph Beach.

Fact No. 1 More truck for your money
Stack up a Chevrolet truck against any other truck, capable of handling the same payloads, and you'll see that Chevrolet gives you far more for your money. Chevrolet, for all its low price, brings you ruggedness, stamina, and exclusive truck features you won't find in many trucks costing a lot more.

Fact No. 2 Rock-bottom operating costs
Many thousands of truck users have proved to their own satisfaction that Chevrolet costs the least of all to own and maintain. Valve-in-Head economy, in the four great Chevrolet engines, saves on gas. Chevrolet's special 4-way engine lubrication system reduces friction and wear, keeps oil costs low.

Fact No. 3 Engineered and built for your loads
Chevrolet trucks are engineered to your payload requirements. You don't waste money by buying "too much truck"—you don't risk work interruption or slow-downs by buying "too little truck." Frame, axles, springs, body, brakes, and power are part of a well-balanced team that does the job at lowest cost.

Fact No. 4 Lower, slower depreciation
Records show that Chevrolet trucks traditionally bring more money at resale or trade-in than any other make. Chevrolet's market value stays up because the value stays in. Here is further evidence that Chevrolet is the best truck buy.

Drew Implies Ready to Fight Redistribution 'Indefinitely'

OTTAWA, July 2 (CP).—George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, Tuesday night implied that his party will continue indefinitely a debate on redistribution unless a change is made on disputed constituency boundaries.

He recalled that Prime Minister St. Laurent had said political controversy should be avoided in dealing with the redistribution bill. The measure would increase Commons membership to 265 from 262 and change the boundaries of 125 constituencies.

Mr. Drew appealed to the government to reconsider its position. The amount of time that will be taken will be measured by the extent to which the government will seek to give some reality to the statement made by Mr. St. Laurent.

He said remarks made by Agriculture Minister Gardiner had proved that "direction" was given members of a redistribution committee in defining boundaries. This was a reference to a statement by Mr. Gardiner that a Liberal caucus of Saskatchewan members agreed that special consideration should be given to constituencies held by M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. leader, and John Diefenbaker (P.C.-Lake Centre).

DEFINITELY INSTRUCTED

Mr. Gardiner said the Saskatchewan Liberal members were "definitely instructed that there had to be a seat of Rosetown-Biggart... and that it had to remain because of the special consideration that had been given."

He said it would have been easy to eliminate Mr. Coldwell's Rosetown-Biggart seat and Mr. Coldwell nodded agreement. Lake Centre was expanded to take in Moose Jaw riding, held by Ross Thatcher of the C.C.F., and some Regina suburbs to which Mr. Diefenbaker objected.

Mr. Gardiner said the constituency thus formed was one that could be won either by Mr. Diefenbaker or Mr. Thatcher.

Mr. Gardiner also offered some advice based on 38 years in politics.

He suggested a few dos and don'ts for "young members" when they face boundary changes:

1. "I don't think you get anywhere kicking about the constituency you have got."

2. Get out and fight for votes even if you think you have been dealt with unfairly.

DIRECTION GIVEN

Mr. Drew said Mr. Gardiner's remarks did not deal with the "cynical gerrymandering that has gone on."

No explanation could be given of the "butchery" performed in seeking to arrive at a new constituency which retains the name but little relationship to the historic background of Lake Centre.

He said there can be no doubt direction also was given in merging Conservative-held ridings of Brandon and Souris in Manitoba and Hastings-Peterborough and Frontenac-Addington in Ontario.

Gordon Graydon (P.C.-Peel) also appealed to Mr. St. Laurent and Citizenship Minister Harris, sponsor of the bill, "to see if between them they cannot come to the house and make some concrete suggestions that will wipe out some or most of the difficulties..."

For 32 years Col. Gorse has shared the enlisted men's dislike for parades.

Asked if he wanted a review in his honor, the colonel answered:

"Nuts. Just give the boys a day off and call it 'Scotty Gorse Day.'"

'FOR HE'S A GOOD FELLOW'

TUSCON, Ariz., July 2 (AP).—More than 5,000 air force officers and men will pay tribute to retiring Lt. Col. John H. Gorse Saturday by not marching in a review.

For 32 years Col. Gorse has shared the enlisted men's dislike for parades.

Asked if he wanted a review in his honor, the colonel answered:

"Nuts. Just give the boys a day off and call it 'Scotty Gorse Day.'"

Surprise Truman Move on Seaway Project Puzzles Ottawa

OTTAWA, July 2 (CP).—A surprise move by President Truman on the St. Lawrence seaway has puzzled official Ottawa.

The President's "11th hour" call on Congress Tuesday for rapid-fire seaway legislation did not upset a joint move Monday by his administration and the Canadian government on the project, but it stirred much speculation.

Mr. Truman's action came a day after the U.S. administration, apparently abandoning hope of Congressional sanction, had turned to an alternative course with Canada to start the $700,000,000 job.

On Monday, the U.S. and Canadian governments joined in applying to the International Joint Commission for permission to construct the $400,000,000 power works. The application carried a commitment that the Canadian government would build the $300,000,000 navigation system alone.

In a letter Tuesday to Alben Barkley, vice-president, and Sam Rayburn, speaker of the House of Representatives, Mr. Truman said Congressional refusal to go ahead on the seaway project is "a glaring example of short-sightedness."

The documents of the U.S.-Canadian agreement "serve notice that the 11th hour has struck."

"If Congress acts rapidly, we can still join, as we should, as a full partner, including managing and controlling this project."

Congressional action on this message would mean that the U.S. administration would be empowered to join Canada fully in a joint project, splitting the cost of both the power and seaway undertakings.

This was regarded here as not having a forlorn chance, with Congress due to rise during the week.

Informants here said the President's step came as a complete surprise to the Canadian government, which had a delegation in Washington Monday ironing out final details of the joint application to the International Commission.

Some officials here expressed the view that the Truman move is one means to clear the Democratic party's political skirts on the seaway. It would demonstrate that the administration took every possible step to leave the seaway in the hands of Congress.

Transport Minister Chevrier, whose department will handle the Federal end of the seaway and who was in Washington Monday for the signing of the Canada-U.S. documents, had no comment Tuesday night on President Truman's action.

PRISONERS CHARGE CRUELTY; FOUR HOSTAGES HELD IN RIOT

CONCORD, Mass., July 2 (AP).—Thirty-four tough prisoners, armed with knives, wrenches and table legs, rioted at Concord State Reformatory for three hours Tuesday while holding four employees as hostages.

They surrendered meekly after getting a guarantee of no reprisal from State Commissioner of Correction Maxwell B. Grossman.

The instructors and guards were released unharmed before the prisoners filed out of the barricaded store house.

In one of the worst riots in the 67-year history of the institution, the rioters wrecked the detention pen, a two-story structure.

After the surrender of the prisoners, Grossman began discussing grievances with representatives of the convicts who complained of food and "cruel treatment" by guards.

Steel Union Strives To Lure Smaller Firms

PITTSBURGH, July 2 (AP).—The United Steelworkers' Union (C.I.O.) continued to try and bring smaller companies into the contract fold today despite a statement by a top industry executive that the big companies can't give in to the demand for a union shop.

A steelworkers' spokesman, pointing to the more than 50,000 steelworkers who have been covered by news pacts since 650,000 workers went on strike a month ago, said:

"We think more of the smaller companies will be in line this week."

The statement came in the wake of a prediction by Charles H. White, head of Republic Steel, that there will be a "long-drawn-out fight" between the steel producers and the union headed by Philip Murray.

White sent a telegram to Presidential Assistant John R. Steelman saying:

"We have fully explored the possibility of reconciling the union shop issue with the C.I.O. and we see no possible area of compromise."

The steel executive told Steelman that a parallel strike in the great iron ore mines of Minnesota is becoming "disastrous."

White said if the iron ore strike continues there will be no possible chance of the resulting ore shortage being made up by all-rail shipments. Much of the ore is shipped over navigable waters in the summer months.

WOULD BE HAZARDOUS

"If we are in the midst of a shooting war next winter this loss would be hazardous," White added.

Murray made no comment on White's telegram.

Thirty-four small companies have signed new contracts based on recommendations made by the wage stabilization board.

Most of the small company contracts provide a modified union shop, requiring new workers to join the union but permitting them to drop out anytime between the 20th and 30th day of employment.

Unemployment figures across the United States have soared to the 1,000,000 mark as a result of the steel strike.

BETWEEN TIMES

By MONTE ROBERTS

James Endicott, the faithful follower of the made-in-Moscow party line, admits that he is an expert on germ warfare.

That is a good thing, because his job in Canada at the present time is, in essence, a form of "germ warfare." He is busily engaged in spreading germs of doubt, disension and distrust.

I am under attack by a unit of the Royal Canadian Navy, and it is an unnerving experience.

A few weeks ago, I had the temerity to make a derogatory remark or two about the city of Winnipeg, in which I once lived.

Now it turns out that a large portion of the crew of H.M.C.S. Crusader is from the 'Peg, and they are very cross with me.

Sixteen of them have penned their signatures to what can only be considered a challenge, and I have no desire to tangle with one sailor, let alone 16.

This is the letter they sent, from Korea: "Reading your article (and we use the word loosely) we are very put out with it, because a large percentage of the ship's company is from the 'Peg. We don't think you are doing the 'Peg justice at all.

"We would think B.C. would have the largest percentage in the ship, just to get away from Victoria.

"We were wondering why they asked you to depart from the fair city of Winnipeg.

"We all heartily agree that if you are a man you will give us a reply to this letter. Maybe when we get back we might have a heart to heart talk concerning the subject.

"We do believe that an apology is in order.

"Yours, THE WINNIPEGGERS."

The loyal sons of the prairie city who sign the letter are: D. Hill, R. Olson, D. Purdy, J. Bewley, R. McInnis, P. Gas-selin, D. C. Sehler, F. Wilkie, S. McPherson, J. Thurmerier, D. Willip, C. W. Logan, T. D. Weir, F. Marchant, S. W. Drin-nan and E. Konsorada.

Well, gentlemen, when the fighting navy asks for an apology, they get one. I apologize.

I suggest that all others who have made cracks about Winnipeg—notably Art Stott—had better apologize, too, before Crusader comes home.

Apologies should be addressed to the Winnipeggers care of their secretary:

A.B.C.V.1 R. Olyson, 7750-E.

H.M.C.S. Crusader,

F.M.O. Dockyard,

Esquimalt, B.C.

And all ex-Winnipeggers in Victoria are invited to write, anyway. The boys like to get mail.

TOPICS OF THE TIMES

City police said traffic ac-cidents were fairly light over the holiday.

R.C.M.P. said a truck driven by Joseph P. Cherry, 1020 Chamberlain, was a total loss after it caught fire after rolling over a bank on the Malahat at the 16-mile post early Tuesday. No one was injured.

Holy Trinity Church will hold their annual congregational parish and Sunday school picnic at Sooke River Flats Thursday at 11.30 a.m.

The Mothers' Union will be in charge of refreshments. A sports program is included.

The Carberry Pioneers' As-sociation will hold their 32nd annual picnic in Stanley Park, by the duck pond, at Vancouver, Saturday, July 12. All friends and acquaintances are invited.

St. Johns, Newfoundland, is growing in both industry and population, Fred W. Hawes told members of Victoria Gyro Club Monday. He reported on a recent trip east, during which he attended an executive com-mittee meeting of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, and later toured through the Mari-time provinces.

Mrs. Barbara Green, originator and operator of the Surplus Food Stall in the Public Market, made an appeal this week for contributions of foodstuffs.

The stall, which provides free food for the needy, will open on Saturday. Mrs. Green said those wishing to contribute food-stuffs or donations to purchase food could telephone G 3720.

A bicyclist, Arthur Harrison, Westholme Hotel, suffered minor injuries Monday when he col-lided with a car driven by Jack O'Kell, 1152 Yates, in the 700 block, View.

Heavy damage resulted early Tuesday when a car driven by Ronald P. Sauliere, H.M.C.S. Naden, struck a telephone pole and overturned in the 600 block, Craigflower, city police report.

Cars driven by Edward F. Car-roll, 933 Island Highway, and Russel R. Forbes, 280 Rockwell, sustained medium damage in a collision at Fort and Wharf Tues-day.

Five youths charged with rob-bing an elderly Parksville man were remanded to July 5 for sen-tence in Nanaimo police court Monday.

The five—William J. Roberts, Stephen W. Thompson, Charles and Robert Murrant and Walter K. Greenlee—were arrested by R.C.M.P. after they allegedly robbed Alex Baird of $1,860 early Sunday morning.

A panel of local orchid fanciers will discuss growing of orchids in the small home at a regular meeting of Victoria Horticultural Society tonight at 7.30 at the City Hall.

T. E. Chester, manager of the Empress Hotel, today asked the city for a blanket permit to al-low erection and display of wel-come signs during conventions.

William E. Cox, 668 Beach Drive, was fined $35 in police court today on a careless driving charge.

Fined $25 for violation of a driver's license restriction was John Damgaard, 542 Harbinger.

LAW TALKS IN MIGHTY TONES TO VIOLATORS

There is no mistaking the voice that asks you to "pull over to the curb" if you violate traffic regulations around Col-wood corners.

It comes to you amplified by a loud, halder, installed on an R.C.M.P. patrol car.

The amplifier, first to be used by the R.C.M.P. in British Co-lumbia, is intended for educa-tion as well as admonition.

Drivers leaving one of the neighborhood "pubs" some-times hear a disembodied voice coming out of the darkness, suggesting that they drive with due care.

Patrolmen use it at their own discretion. They may follow a car which shows signs of speed-ing, and announce, "We are clocking you—please observe the speed limit."

BAD FOR MILITARY

TRAFFIC JAMS FORESEEN IN HIGHWAY PLAN

Some military and business officials on Vancouver Island fear a serious traffic bottleneck if the new Island Highway fol-lows the route proposed at present.

Maj.-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, V.C., M.P. for Nanaimo, forecast Mon-day a serious traffic jam between Pearson's Bridge and Colwood corner.

He said he feared motor traf-fic over the highway would inter-fere with military convoys to es-tablishments along the route, and beyond to Rocky Point area.

Major H. C. Holmes of Victoria, past chairman of the high-way committee of the chamber of commerce, told The Times to-day he was in "entire agreement with General Pearkes."

"Access to the capital city from all Island points should be by the shortest possible route," Major Holmes said, "and the proposed right-of-way for the new Island highway fails to meet this re-quirement."

The department of defense had not yet expressed any opinion on the matter, Gen. Pearkes re-ported, but the department of re-sources had indicated it was will-ing to accept the provincial rec-ommendations.

Walter Miles, newly-elected chairman of the Chamber high-way committee, agreed with Gen-eral Pearkes' analysis of the dif-ficulties which would be created by the proposed route.

Haida's Chief Edenshaw Credited With Carvings

Charles Edenshaw, Haida artist, at work in 1907.

The current controversy on who carved the Haida totems has taken a Victoria man back in memory over 45 years—and convinces him they are the work of Charles Edenshaw.

In 1907, Alfred Carmichael, 78, retired head of the Victoria real estate firm bearing his name, was land prospecting in the Queen Charlotte Islands. He walked 90 miles, from Skidegate to Masset, and in the Indian village, found a stooped, wrinkled chief carving a totem.

"I am not as interested then as I am now," he said, "but I took photographs of the man at work."

"In 1951, I began to gather material for an article on the Islands, and wished to have the carver identified. Through the provincial archivists, I made contact with Mrs. Fred Nash, of Terrace, B.C., who is a daughter of the late Henry Edenshaw, nephew of Charles Edenshaw.

"Mrs. Nash identified the carver as her great-uncle."

"In her opinion, he was the best carver of his time, and the best Haida carver of all time."

Mr. Carmichael believes that the totems now owned by Mrs. D. W. Carter, 777 St. Patrick Street, are the work of Charles Edenshaw. He also thinks there are probably "quite a few" examples of his carving in Vic-toria. He was a prolific worker," he states.

Mr. Carmichael also photo-graphed a portion of the village of Masset. The totems pictured are now gone, and the houses have been rebuilt.

Wait for It! Oak Bay Starts Organized Games

Any moment, now, instructor Kay Lowrie at Windsor Park, Oak Bay, will give word to go in the first game of ball tag in Oak Bay's program of organized summer sports for its youngsters. Trudie Humber, with ball, has her eye on a vic-tim. Three Oak Bay parks opened to-day. (Times photo.)

Eager Kiddies Crowd Playgrounds For First of 27 Parks' Programs

The first of 27 Greater Victoria children's playgrounds opened today.

Official opening of the four-week playground season in Oak Bay took place today at the municipality's three play parks.

Reeve P. A. Gibbs and coun-cillors Fred Norris, George Mur-dock and Fred Robinson repre-senting Oak Bay municipal coun-cil, and Mrs. Harold Beckwith, Mrs. Margaret Grant, and J. J. Wilkinson of the playground com-mittee took part in the cere-monies.

They began at Willows Park at 10 a.m., at Windsor Park at 10.30, and at Lafayette at 11. About 400 children are expected at the three parks, from where a program of hobbies, handicrafts, conducted tours, special event days, and games will be carried out.

There will also be one hour of tennis instruction for children of 12 and over every morning at Windsor Park.

The ten supervised playlots to be operated in the city will open their summer program Monday, July 7.

Fourteen parks will be operated in Saanich this year. Two will begin their activities Monday and others will open during the fol-lowing two weeks.

Labor Front Static

There were no real develop-ments today in the labor-manage-ment war currently tying up British Columbia's forest and con-struction industries.

Groups on both sides of the dispute seemingly view the present situation as a cat-and-mouse game in which each intends to play the part of the cat, content to wait for a wrong move by the opposition before making a move of its own.

Today was the 17th day of the strike by the 32,000 coastal wood-workers, bargaining through the International Woodworkers of America, and the 15th day of the Victoria construction tie-up affect-ing directly 500 local carpenters.

Today was the third day of strike for Victoria painters.

Striking Vancouver carpenters are receiving pay for this week away from work. Under an ar-rangement prior to the strike, it was agreed that the week of June 30 would be observed as the hol-iday-with-pay week for the indus-try. The holiday is being ob-served.

In Victoria, contractors af-filiated with the Victoria Building Industries' Exchange say they will provide holiday pay for their employees next week. Opposition to this has been raised by the striking carpenters' union, which maintains it should be given an opportunity to say when the hol-iday should be.

Carpenters have asked the B.C. Labor Relations Board to inter-vene with the exchange's holiday plan but the board has so far given no indication of acting in this regard.

The builders' exchange is still negotiating with the structural steel workers' union here.

Victoria's 14 glass workers still threaten strike action.

Strike news from the mainland today concerned the 1,200-member Construction and Gen-eral Laborers' local, which is threatening to sue Vancouver contractors for loss of wages.

Bill James, international repre-sentative of the union, said con-tractors' action in shutting down all work projects after carpenters struck was contrary to the pro-vincial labor code.

She and others from through-out the province will compete for the "Miss P.N.E." title.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Peterson, she is employed at the Canadian Bank of Com-merce. She was crowned at a ceremony Tues- night.

EAST MOVES WEST

Among the highlights of an excellent program was a tribal dance by a group of Cowichan Indians, complete with tom-toms, war paint and full native attire.

Chief Mike Underwood, who led the acts, was a much-pho-tographed personage and stood smiling for the cameras with the true dignity of his race.

Trained by Dan Robertson, eight-to-a-l school children thrilled spectators with their square dancing. Dan was caller, and has every good reason to be proud of his pupils.

Colorful Japanese dances in-troduced an air of novelty to the afternoon. The dancers' co-sumes were a blaze of beautiful colors shimmering in the bril-liant sunshine which persisted all day. Supplying their own music, they brought the mystic East and its customs to the plat-form.

On the same programme Jerry Lancaster and his Rhythm Rang-ers not only had the crowds in fits of laughter, but managed to make everyone hungry with his many references to eating.

As expected, the loggers' sports provided many thrills. In the sawing contest Charlie Murray, Wellington, carried off the hon-ors with 26 seconds, thus becom-ing the new champion. Phil Whitaker, Duncan, was second with 1 minute 44 1/2 seconds, followed by Hugh McKenzie, Victoria, with 1 minute 44 1/2 seconds.

HIGH RIGGER STARS

In the chopping contest the muscular Whitaker had a walk-over with 45.3 seconds. Allen Woodrow, Courtenay, finished in

Hospital on War Footing

Jubilee Prepared for Instant Swing To Meet Conditions of Civil Defense

By ROY THORSEN

The Royal Jubilee Hospital has been completely orga-nized so that "it can go on a wartime footing at a moment's notice."

This was reported today by Leonard G. Hatcher, Victoria and district target area civil defense director.

Organization of other hospital units in the area to the same point of preparedness in the event of an enemy invasion is almost complete, the London veter-an of air raid warfare reported to the Victoria Times.

SATURDAY TESTS

The warning wail of 12 air-raid sirens will dominate other sounds in Greater Victoria at 10.25, Saturday morning.

However, it will not mean a warning to "take cover" because of an impending attack.

It will signal the first mam-moth civil defense rally held in this area since the inauguration of a nation-wide program to or-ganize the country to take the "sting" out of the plans of an aggressor.

Rally will be held in the Cor-morant Street market building headquarters of the local civil defense organization, featuring the two biggest men guiding Cana-da and Great Britain in this phase of potential emergency.

KEY FIGURES

They are Sir John Hodsall, chief of Britain's civil defense system, and Maj.-Gen. F. F. Worthington, top co-ordinator for Canada.

At the same time the sirens are sounded, a police escort will guide Sir John and the general to the rally point. There they will be greeted by the mayor's deputy, Maj.-Gen. C. R. Stein, co-ordina-tor for B.C., will introduce Gen. Worthington, who in turn will in-troduce Britain's chief, Sir John.

Will address the gathering of civil defense workers briefly and will be thanked by Mr. Hatcher.

Maj.-Gen. Stein, Mr. Hatcher and Percy Sampson, in charge of local C.D. training, are among local personnel who will attend a rally in the Hotel Vancouver Thursday night. Between 1,200 and 1,500 are expected there.

It is urged by officials that the 3,000 local citizens enrolled in the civil defense scheme attend the Victoria rally. Admittance will be by civil defense identity cards.

Provincial Secretary W. T. Straith, minister in charge of civil defense in this province, will be host at a luncheon for the distinguished visitors at the Union Club Thursday.

Mr. Hatcher, after sifting all reports, is not satisfied that pres-ent air-raid sirens are being heard plainly enough throughout the district following the last mass test.

"I've got 14 more sirens coming and will place some in the down-town area so that there is only a half-mile separating each. The others will be placed strategically in the outside districts," he said.

Mr. Hatcher did not think he required all 14 immediately, but wants a reserve in case of break-down.

While civil defense classes have been abandoned until after Labor Day, the director said the local organization was now concen-trating on organization.

EQUIPMENT COMING

"I have been advised that we will get the first set of equipment from Ottawa to completely outfit our casualty clearing stations," Mr. Hatcher said.

He is quite satisfied with the over-all progress being made in the medical phase.

Robert Doble, city traffic engi-neer, he said, was lining up the telephone and communications set-up.

City Engineer Cyril Jones is in charge of setting up the central control room at the Normal School. It will be a bomb-proof affair.

The director reported that dur-ing the next two months Barrie Gault, of the British Columbia Labor Relations Board, chief war-den for the area, would have con-ferences to consolidate plans.

Duncan Dominion Day Draws All-Time Record of 10,000

'Hairy-Apes,' B.C. Beauties Vie for Attention; Cowichan Indians Thrill With Tribal Dance

Special to the Times

An estimated 10,000 people swarmed into Duncan Tues-day to witness what is regarded by officials as the most successful Dominion Day to be held in that city.

From early morning the streets were jammed tight with crowds from far and near, one vast, happy throng of many nationalities. So varied the at-tendance that one official sug-gested it should be called Democracy Day.

And if it was entertainment they were seeking they certainly had plenty. The side stalls sponsored by the Kinsmen con-stituted a show in themselves. Most popular of these was the dunking pool which provided day-long fun and laughter for its many patrons.

Joy M. Peterson, 19, of Duncan, was chosen from among nine candidates as Miss Cowichan Lumber Queen for 1952, and will represent Cow-ichan District at the Pacific National Exhibition in Van-couver.

She and others from through-out the province will compete for the "Miss P.N.E." title.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Peterson, she is employed at the Canadian Bank of Com-merce. She was crowned at a ceremony Tues- night.

Driver Charged In Death Crash

Peter Nelson Remanded for Hearing Following Monday Traffic Fatality

A 28-year-old city machinist has been charged with manslaughter as the result of the June 30 traffic death of 63-year-old Mrs. Frances Boorman.

Peter V. Nelson, 1342 Pem-broke, was remanded one week to set a date for hearing when he appeared in police court to-day on the charge.

No plea was entered through his counsel, Terence P. O'Grady. Mrs. Boorman died at Jubilee Hospital from injuries suffered when she was hurled from a car after a collision at Denman and Belmont Monday night.

Driver of the car in which she was a passenger was Ernest Moss, Courtenay.

Moss suffered shoulder in-juries, cuts and bruises.

Both cars were extensively damaged.

An inquest has been set for Friday at 10 a.m.

Death of Mrs. Boorman brings to five the total of persons killed in traffic accidents in the Greater Victoria area since the beginning of the year—three in the city, one in Oak Bay and one in R.C.M.P. territory.

Mrs. Boorman is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Thomas Moss, wife of the assistant chief of the Saanich fire department, and Mrs. W. A. Pearson, wife of the Saanich police juvenile of-ficer; two brothers, three sisters and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held on Friday at 1.30 p.m. from Sands, with interment at Ross Bay Cemetery.

COURTS QUIET, JUDGES HOLIDAY

One of the quietest places in Victoria today was the Bastion Street Court House.

From now until the end of August, the judiciary will ob-serve the customary long sum-mer recess.

Judges will sit briefly each Friday to deal with chamber matters.

Summer School Teachers Sign For New Term

More than 1,600 teachers from all parts of British Columbia jammed Victoria High School to-day for the opening assembly of the 39th annual Summer School of Education.

Education Minister W. T. Straith, in a brief address, told the gathering he hoped they would never lose the "enthusiasm and interest in pupils," which is a teacher's most important asset.

Semi-Mourning Subdues Social Ascot's Style Parade This Year

ASCOT, England (CP).—The first Royal Ascot of the new Elizabethan era saw fashions at most as subdued as the faces of the vast crowds trying to pick a winner at the four-day meeting.

Sport writers called it a "black A-cot" for backers and it was almost literally that for the women, who generally followed Queen Elizabeth's preference for semi-mourning colors such as black and white, mauve and grey.

With outsiders winning most of the big races, the milling, elegantly-attired crowds sought solace in trying to get a glimpse of the Queen's party as it drove up the course each day in carriages drawn by Windsor greys.

In the Royal enclosure, where people of title and talent gathered, there were few gleams of colors more startling than an occasional honey gold. For sensible women, the weather—on the whole rather pleasant, but with strong breezes at times—meant coats of varying thickness, most of which were black, white and grey.

MARGARET'S CHOICE

One fashion pointer was the choice of all-round pleats for silk or organza dresses. On one day, Princess Margaret, who rode in a carriage behind the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh, wore an all-round pleated black organza dress with tiny, white mink, batwing jacket and black coned bonnet covered in white lace.

The Queen and Princess Margaret usually chose wide-skirted dresses with duster coats or tiny fur jackets and stoles. A lovely grey outfit with the silver sheen of the under side of a leaf, worn by the Queen, was a wide-skirted, stiff, silk dress, wide-brimmed grey straw hat with tulle draping and mutation mink cape. The same day, Princess Margaret chose a white chiffon, three-quarter-sleeved dress with draped bra ted by a big bow. Her wide picture hat had a tiny black crown, the huge white brim tipped with black.

The breezes and full-skirted fashions gave an unusual slant to the requirements of a well-dressed woman. Pretty petticoats that grandmother would have loved were the saving grace of many light gowns. But sharp-eyed Joan Reeder of The Daily Mirror detected a flaw: "Illusions of enchantment were sadly shattered," wrote Miss Reeder, "when the breeze blew skirts waist high... showing the skimpiest of underwear."

For debutantes, big skirts, wide hats and uncomfortable-looking sandals, formed by a few narrow straps, seemed the popular choice. Fashion writers generally appeared to think that the Ascot debutantes were overshadowed by the smart clothes of the older women.

"It was planned chaos," said Peggy Briggs, also of The Daily Mirror, in a scathing reference to debutante gowns of filmy organza and big floppy hats worn with furs that did not suit the outfit.

TODAY'S RECIPE

PEACH CHARLOTTE

One and a half cups peach whole fruit nectar, ½ cup granulated sugar, few grains salt, 1 envelope (1 tablespoon) plain gelatin, 4 tablespoons lemon juice, ½ cup whipping cream, 12 lady fingers.

Heat nectar with sugar and salt. Soften gelatin in lemon juice and dissolve in hot nectar. Cool until partially thickened. Whip cream until stiff and fold into gelatin mixture. Split lady fingers and arrange around edges of 1-quart mold. Fill mold with gelatin mixture. Chill until firm. Unmold to serve. Serves 6 to 8.

Boost Membership—A report from Mrs. P. E. Taylor at recent meeting of Women's Auxiliary to Royal Jubilee Hospital showed that 12 active and seven associate members had joined the auxiliary in the past month. June dues amounted to $300. Representing the auxiliary Mrs. W. G. Crawford reported to a meeting of the associate board of provincial hospital auxiliaries held recently at U.B.C. Plans were revealed for a late July garden party. Committee conveners will meet in hospital annex on July 16 at 2.30.

Queen of Peace Church Scene of Nuptial Mass

A holiday wedding of interest took place Tuesday morning in Queen of Peace Church when Father L. MacLellan heard the nuptial vows of Marie McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter McDonald, Russell Street, and Harold Dennis Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, Tennyson Avenue.

Mrs. A. Smith played traditional wedding music as the bride walked up the aisle on the arm of her father and A. Cok sang "Ave Maria," during the signing of the register.

Snapdragons, sweet peas, peonies, bluebells and roses which decorated the church offered a colorful foil for the gown of ivory satin touched with lace yoke outlined with seed pearls. Lace inset was repeated on the skirt and a double peplum encircled the full skirt. The bride's floor-length veil was caught in a beaded coronet. A bouquet of red roses and white swansonia completed the bridal ensemble.

Maid of honor, Florence McDonald, wore a gown of powder

Tea Opened By Visitor

A successful strawberry tea in St. Richard's Church hall was opened Saturday afternoon by Rt. Rev. Monsignor A. G. Baker, Nainaimo. Father W. J. O'Brien, pastor, assisted by Mrs. J. Clarke, welcomed guests. Standard baskets of multi-colored flowers and fern decorated the hall and vases of pink roses and gypsophila centred tea tables. J. Fitzgerald was in charge of door receipts; Mrs. J. Potts, home cooking and A. O'Brien, contest.

Two Rings Used Souka-Gilmour Marriage

A double-ring ceremony held Sunday evening in the Church of Our Lord united Enid Joyce Muir Gilmour, daughter of Mrs. Mae Gilmour and the late Alex Gilmour, formerly of Craik, Sask., and Peter John Louis Souka, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Souka, Pine Falls, Manitoba.

Given in marriage by her grandfather, F. N. Spencer, the bride was attractively gowned in a pale blue nylon dress with white accessories. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and white stocks.

Maid of honor, Miss Elsie Jones, wore a gown of slate grey with pink accessories and carried a colonial bouquet. Mr. Frank Thibedeau, Pine Falls, Man., was best man.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mae Gilmour, 1600 McRae Avenue. Highlight of the evening was long-distance calls from the groom's parents and relatives in Pine Falls, Man.

Upon leaving for a honeymoon in Vancouver and Seattle, Wash., the bride donned a navy blue suit with light blue topcoat and matching accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Souka will live at 1460 Gladstone Avenue upon their return.

Barbecue Prepared for Country Fair

The outdoor fireplace at the home of Mrs. Mary Fieldhouse, 819 Colville Road, will be a centre of attraction at the country fair to be held there by the Ladies' Auxiliary to Naval Veterans' Branch of the Canadian Legion, on Friday evening commencing at 7 p.m. Among those assisting are, left to right, Mrs. G. Fieldhouse, who will be in charge of the barbecue, Mrs. S. Aldred, Mrs. M. Fieldhouse, Mrs. A. L. Rutherford, general convener, Mrs. L. Howe, Mrs. K. Tapley, Laura and Janet. There will be stalls of home cooking, candy and a raffle. Hot dogs, hamburgers, coffee and sandwiches will be sold and a series of games have been arranged.

Summer Flowers Create Setting For Wedding in First United Church

Roses in pastel hues, interspersed with tall blue delphiniums, made a lovely frame for the wedding of Helene Beatrice Turner and Douglas George Dye in First United Church on Monday evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, Sayward Road, Elk Lake, and the groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Dye, Townsend Drive, Royal Oak.

The pulpit was flanked with candles and standards of summer flowers. Roses and purple heather marked the pews. Rev. M. A. J. Waters officiated.

During the signing of the register Paul Wharf sang "Passing By," accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Roberto Wood. The young couple were piped from the church by D. Leask.

The bride wore a gown of lace over heavy satin with a fitted bodice ending in a V at the waist.

Her slightly stiffened collar complemented a square neckline and the long lace sleeves were finished with Elizabethan cuffs.

Dainty rows of nylon net graduated under beneath a short lace peplum on the skirt to cascade into a full length train.

An Elizabethan headpiece held the finger-tip embroidered nylon net veil. Only jewelry was a rhinestone necklace. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Anne Turner, matron of honor, in green taffeta, the Misses Margaret Newton and Edith Turner in yellow taffeta, and Miss Phyllis Wakeman wearing mauve, were the senior attendants. Their frocks were styled with low bertha collars forming cap sleeves and full skirts.

The matron of honor had a fitted cap of green lace and the bridesmaids wore bands of material in their hair to match their dresses.

Both the bride and her matron of honor had bouquets of summer flowers centred by gardenias while the bridesmaids had colonial bouquets.

As train bearers, Louise and Sheila Turner were dressed in pink net over taffeta and had bands of flowers in their hair.

Mr. W. C. Turner was best man. Ushers were Mr. R. Dunn, Mr. D. McHattie and Mr. C. McAllister.

Mr. A. Robertson proposed the toast at the reception which followed, when mothers of the principals received. Mrs. Turner chose a navy frock with powder blue and navy accessories. Mrs. Dye wore an ensemble of white, red and grey.

For traveling to Wyoming the bride wore a jacket and skirt in a soft blue gabardine, pink accessories, white duster coat and gardenia corsage.

Garden Party Thursday

Lodge Primrose No. 32, Daughters-of-England, will hold their garden party Thursday at 7.30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. R. McVie, 922 Lyall Street.

Alberta and B.C. Share Interest In Tait-Archer Wedding Vows

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church was scene of the wedding Saturday evening of Florence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Archer, Lethbridge, Alta., and Marvin Allan Tait, son of Mrs. N. S. Frost, 225 Burnside Road West.

Rev. J. L. W. McLean officiated and Mrs. F. Wilmschurst played the organ music with "Because" given during signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by Mr. A. J. Long, wore white nylon marquisette with bouffant skirt of nylon net and overdress of marquisette styled with stand-up collar, small buttons to the waist and short sleeves. Her waist-length veil of fine tulle was gathered to a bonnet-style head-dress of satin outlined with seed pearls. A rhinestone necklace and earrings were her ornaments. She carried a white prayer book topped with red roses and satin streamers.

Mrs. D. A. Stevenson, matron of honor, and Miss Lily Archer and Miss Elizabeth Harrison of New Westminster, attended her. All were gowned in silk faille in shades of delphinium blue with overskirts of matching net and nylon net bolero-jackets and mitts and bandeaux of flowers to correspond with the crescent bouquets of pink carnations.

Junior bridesmaid was Miss Sharon Frost with Miss Catherine Frost as flower girl. Sharon wore an ankle-length blue or gandy-dress over taffeta, with colonial bouquet of sweet peas centred with a rose and bandeau of the same blooms. Catherine was dressed in a short pink or gandy frock with wreath of flowers repeating the summer flowers in her miniature colonial bouquet.

Best man was Ronald McLaren. Ushers were David Stevenson and Alex Onischuk.

The reception was held at Hampton Hall. In the absence of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Long welcomed guests with Mr. and Mrs. Frost. The table, decorated with roses, was centred with the three-tiered cake bedded in tulle and flanked by white candles in silver holders. The toast was given by Mr. R. S. Vickers.

The couple flew to Seattle and will travel south. Leaving, the bride wore a grey English worsted dressmaker suit, with navy blue straw hat, navy and white accessories and a red rosebud corsage.

WHY GROW OLD?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Light Colors at the Neck Banish Facial Shadows

Most women are aware that lighting has a great effect on the way they look. Bad lighting can make a woman look literally years older while flattering lights take years from her face. I learned long ago that some lights on some lecture platforms made me look 10 years older than I did in broad daylight.

I think you might enjoy this little experiment. Put on a black or dark-colored dress, turn on the lights and stand in front of the bathroom mirror. Look at yourself. Now take a white bath towel and drape it across your chest and over your shoulders. Look again. Do you see how many of the shadows have disappeared? For this reason, light colors and white trimming at the neck are becoming.

There is a brand new cosmetic which I must report to you because it works on the same principle. It does away with the shadows in those hollows in the face which add years to a woman's appearance. In fact it fills the hollows with light because the product has a highly reflective quality. This new cosmetic does not in any way lift the face, but it gives the illusion of doing so.

It is invisible and easy to apply. You put it under the eyes, from nose to mouth and mouth to chin and at the temples, and then blend it outward. These are the spots in which shadows fall. While this is not a cosmetic column, I do report truly new ideas to you when I find them.

Remember the lighting principle in your dress, your make-up and the lighting in your drawing room. This can make all the difference in the world in the way you look. For a long time, make-up experts have been telling us to keep rouge out of the hollows of the cheeks, to use lighter powder on such areas and darker powder when trying to minimize a large nose.

If you would like to have my leaflet No. 50, "What's Going On? (make-up)," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

GIRL GUIDES

Happy Valley—At a special meeting of Happy Valley Brownies at Luxton Hall Brownies Lorraine Thiberge and Shirley Luck were enrolled by Brown Owl Mrs. K. Phillips. Judy Moseley made a speech of welcome. Stepping up the golden stairs to receive their golden bars were Tina Wohlers, Judy Baxter, Joan Montgomery, Mary Anne Hiscock and Allison Gardiner. Songs were sung and games played. Joan Allen and her mother entertained with a piano duet. Members of the group served tea.

Colwood—Robin Price, has been chosen with eight other girls from Victoria District to attend the National Camp of Girl Guides at Ottawa in July. Guides from all parts of the world assemble at the camp to exchange ideas and news. Robin was chosen on her high standard of guide work, her character and her influence in the community. The girls leave next week. Tonight parents and friends of the Colwood guides will attend a special meeting, marking the end of the term.

THE DOCTOR ANSWERS

State Should Care For Aged Alcoholics

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.

Today's first letter reveals a real tragedy...

Q—Our father has been an excessive drinking man for over 25 years. He has never been capable of attending to business. Mother and we children had to manage the best we could. Now he is mentally unbalanced and he has delirium attacks. He runs his family down to everybody and tells people his family does illegal acts. He just makes things up to hurt us. We are all good to him and want to help. He needs treatment but won't let us help him. What is the best thing to do for a man in his condition?

A—Here, evidently, is a man who is both alcoholic and mentally ill. The family should not have to put up with his behavior any longer. The courts should assist this suffering family in getting rid of this problem with which they have had to put up too long.

48th Battalion Retraces 1915 Embarkation Route

The route they took from the old-Willows exhibition grounds to the Vancouver boat that started them on the road to the overseas battlefield 37 years ago, was traveled again Saturday by survivors of the 48th Battalion C.E.F. Association.

Only nine of the 17 members from Vancouver got over for the reunion. Officials reported four local members had died during the last year.

However, about 60 of the old soldiers gathered in the evening for a reunion dinner in the Britannia Branch of the Canadian Legion Hall on Cormorant.

French berets of the Third Division the 48th fought with were sported by some members.

NEW YORK OFF AS INVESTORS SKIM PROFITS

NEW YORK, July 2 (AP).—A mild sort of profit-taking today held the stock market to the downside after a five-day advance.

Losses were fairly well scattered and amounted to fractions between one and two points. Gains were fractional.

Trading volume slumped down to an estimated 1,400,000 shares compared with yesterday's advancing market.

In the last five sessions the stock market advanced to five successive new highs for 1952. Today's easy settling of prices was not considered unusual in view of the prolonged advance.

The large minus signs were widely scattered and apparently justified on an individual rather than a group basis.

Oils at one time showed some upside promise, but the gains faded in late trading.

Toronto Lower As Oils Drop

TORONTO, July 2 (CP).—Western oil's drifted irregularly lower today toward the close of a generally trendless stock market session.

Industrials, base metals and oils started strongly as interlisted issues jumped sharply to catch up with New York's advance yesterday. First-hour selling, however, checked the upward movement and steadily erased most gains.

Prices were mixed in mid-afternoon trading but tended lower by mid-afternoon.

Volume for the session totaled about 1,500,000 shares.

Construction formed industrial's strongest section with a scattered list of fractional advances.

Western oil leaders traded lower but lower-priced issues held gains and losses in balance. Bittfava was strong. Punched and Sweed Grass traded actively but held little headway.

Base metals showed little trend. Petroleum Iron and New Ryan Lake traded steadily but showed little change.

Senior oils eased. Junior producers and prospects were firm but holding companies dipped.

Montreal Down

MONTREAL, July 2 (CP).—Sporadic but mild profit-taking pulled prices back from their highs near the close in today's trading.

Opening firmness extended Monday's upswing and prices pushed steadily higher as the session progressed. However, by early afternoon, realizing left minus and plus markers evenly divided.

Utilities and senior oils held early firmness but steel, carriers and senior metals were slightly lower. Banks were steady. Papers, beverages and miscellaneous industrials mixed gains and losses in balance.

Mines were unable to establish a trend as most issues traded unchanged in light turnover. Western oils posted a large list of declines.

Vancouver Off

VANCOUVER, July 2.—Noon close. In a slow market at Vancouver exchange in the early session today stocks drifted in a mixed pattern with fractional losses offset by scattered gains in western oils and a firm tone in base metals and industrials.

New Superior closed at $190, up 15; Del Rio was off 5 to $390; Pacific unchanged at $12; York off 1 at 45; Charter down 5 to $2.25; Estrella was $1.60, up 1, and Canadian Western Lumber closed strong at $8.

London Bonds Up

LONDON, July 2 (Reuters).—Strength in both German and Japanese bonds was the feature on the London Stock Exchange today. Both gained up to five points at one time on new account speculative activity and buying based on renewed debt settlement hopes.

Tourists, Investors Help Boost Exchange

By BURKE CAHILL, Times Business Editor

The Canadian dollar today reached a premium of 3 1/2 cents over the U.S. in the foreign exchange market at New York.

The stronger currency is partly accounted for by the favorable tourist balance which Canada is now enjoying. As the visitor trade gets into full seasonal swing there is extra demand for Canadian funds and this helps push the dollar up.

The big question now is, of course just how high will the Canadian dollar go? One thing is certain, the experts can't tell you.

Only the other day at an accountants' convention in Vancouver—Dr. J. E. Crumb, professor of economics at University of B.C., who seems to be an outspoken sort of man, stated that according to statistics—the Canadian dollar is worth only 95 cents U.S.

Another expert, speaking in Winnipeg this week, opined that Canada's air of stability in a terribly troubled world was attracting traders and investors the world over to Canadian currency as a safe medium for their holdings.

This week the Financial Times of Montreal attributed the persistent strength of the Canadian dollar partly to the fact that money floating around Canada is becoming scarcer while U.S. money is getting more plentiful.

So far in 1952, the financial weekly says, the central bank of Canada has lightened its holdings of government bonds by selling $238 million of long term while buying $241 million of short term bonds. Such operations by the central bank would, of course, tend to shorten credit and money supplies throughout the entire Canadian banking system.

No-Hit Game

PORTSMOUTH, Va., July 2 (AP)—Bill Chambers, 25-year-old righthander of Portsmouth Cubs, pitched the first no-hit, no-run game of the Class B Piedmont League's 1952 season Tuesday night, stopping Newport News 3-0.

Chambers walked five. They were the only Newport News players to get on base.

2,000 Island War Veterans Win Increased Allowances

Recent action by the federal Parliament has brought an increase for 2,000 recipients of war veterans' allowances on Vancouver Island.

Increases will be included in August 31 cheques, reports S. H. Okell, assistant district administrator for this D.V.A. district.

The single veteran and widow will draw $50 a month instead of $40.41. A veteran or widow with a dependant gets a boost from $70.83 to $90. All are retroactive to January 1 of this year.

A single veteran or widow is still allowed liquid assets of $1,000. There has been a hike from $1,750 to $2,000 for the married in this category.

A single man is allowed to earn $60 a month, the married $100. Assistance fund continues, but the maximum is now $120 a year, single or married.

The War Veterans' Allowance Act section permitting recipients to work does not become effective until August 1. Applicants can either write to or call personally at the local D.V.A. offices in this regard.

TORONTO TRAMS

The first streetcar line built in Toronto was on Yonge Street and opened for traffic Sept. 11, 1861.

Refused leave to see his dying mother, Mrs. Allan Goodmurphy of Toronto, Pte. Harold Ward, above has become the centre of a parliamentary issue. Ward, who is due to return home from Korea in August on rotation, had asked immediate leave when it was learned that his mother was given three weeks to live. Army headquarters in Ottawa refused the leave on the grounds that Pte. Ward's presence would not affect his mother's condition. Defense Minister Claxton promised in Commons to investigate the matter.

Reservists Start Cruise On Week-End

H.M.C.S. Sault Ste. Marie, training ship of the local naval reserve division, will head south at 8 p.m. July 5 for her 15-day summer training cruise.

Under the command of Lieut. Cmdr. B. T. R. Russell, the minesweeper will have aboard approximately 100 personnel of all ranks. This will include 18 officers and 10 men of H.M.C.S. Malahat, reserve division.

The ship will return from Santa Catalina and other southern ports of call July 20 at noon.

Lieut. Al Collins, naval reserve information officer, reports that the following week will be spent preparing for Navy Day celebrations to be centred on the Lower Beacon Hill Park playing field, July 26.

Ship's company of Malahat will take part in the show, which includes a "frogman" attack on the beach and fireworks display at night.

Units of the fleet will be manoeuvring off the Dallas Road waterfront. The public is invited to go aboard for a ride and inspect the ships.

Youthful Airman Pays Fine of $50

A 19-year-old R.C.A.F. airman was fined $50 and $5 costs in provincial court Monday for possessing liquor under the age of 21.

Fined was George A. Adams, 877 Old Esquimalt Road. R.C.M.P. said he was found parked at Esquimalt Lagoon with a case of beer in his car. With him were two minors, said police.

In Esquimalt police court, Joseph R. Frumento, 623 Grenville, was fined $35 on a charge of careless driving.

Newsman Flays Council For Spoiling Streets

City fathers Monday were castigated by James K. Nesbitt, well-known newspaperman, for what he termed "mutilation of streets."

In a letter to City Hall he deplored the "wholesale removal" of cluster lights and said the streets "once so beautiful are starting to look like streets in ugly wilderness towns."

Collection at Army Concert For Solarium

A cheque for $208.24, the total collection received at last week's public concert by the Canadian Scottish Regiment (Princess Mary's) at Beacon Hill Park, was presented to the Queen Alexandra Solarium Monday.

The same effort last year netted $290 for the Solarium.

Those taking part in the program were Arthur Stringer, Sheila Marmo, W. Emmerson, Joe North, Mrs. F. Thomas, Velda Wille School of Dancing, Adelaine Duncan's Highland dance students, Pipe-Major Ian Duncan, Pipe-Major Andy Pollock and the pipe band;

Joe Fee, George Clark, Mrs. Alice Syrett, Marlene and Ray Hunt, Dianne and Marie Tippet, Stan James, Edie Davies and the Scottish brass band under Sgt. W. Davis.

Collection was made by the Victoria Girls' Pipe Band.

From an Actual Letter to Your Telephone Company

"HAD THERE BEEN ANY DELAY OR CONFUSION ... NOTHING COULD HAVE BEEN SAVED"

"I wish to express to your operators our thanks and admiration for the prompt and efficient handling of the calls put in from Mrs. _____ in the hurry and excitement of the fire we suffered . . .

"Had there been any delay or confusion on your part I fear that nothing could have been saved."

In handling the hundreds of thousands of telephone calls each day, the 3000 operators in our group of companies have many opportunities of rendering valuable service to their communities. Their work draws many complimentary letters from subscribers.

WONDER IT GOT STARTED AT ALL

Star-Studded Movie Under Way

By JACK GAVER

NEW YORK, July 2 (UP).—The business of making a "movie" called "Main Street to Broadway," which is supposed to "advertise" the stage, has finally started.

The film, which Lester Cowan is producing in conjunction with the Council of the Living Theatre, was to have been made at least a year ago. Many circumstances conspired to hold it up, not the least of which seemed to be a certain ineptness by all hands.

PLENTY OF PARKING AREA

That was a little surprising in view of the fact that Cowan is a recognized movie man, that the original story for the film was outlined by Robert E. Sherwood, an outstanding dramatist, and that the screen plan was being devised by Samson Raphaelson, who is another.

However, being the sort of enterprise it is, rather than a straight-out commercial undertaking by a single movie expert, bugs were bound to develop. It was something of a miracle that it really got started at all.

PLENTY OF STARS

There will be plenty of stage stars in the cast, so many and so prominent that no one could afford to pay them their regular salaries to appear in the same film. This effort, however, is a contribution to the theatre.

Among the stars are Katharine Cornell, Lilli Palmer, Rex Harrison, Tallulah Bankhead, Olivia de Havilland, Jose Ferrer, Julie Harris, Gertrude Lawrence, Henry Fonda and Peggy Wood, to name a few. They will be playing themselves, part of the Broadway scene.

Shooting of outdoor scenes in the theatrical district here will be completed soon, after which the rest of the film will be shot on the sound stages of Hollywood. Lack of proper studio space in New York made that move necessary for the shooting of the interiors.

LEAD NOT DECIDED

No one seems to know yet just who will play the leading role, that of a girl who comes to Broadway from the sticks to go on the stage and meets all the drabness and glory of the medium, to say nothing of the right young man.

The film will have a special musical interlude prepared by Oscar Hammerstein and Richard Rodgers, including a new song by the famous team. Both also will appear in the picture.

Profits from the film, which has been financed by a group of theatre owners, are earmarked for the Council of the Living Theatre to be used in promoting the legitimate theatre throughout the country.

Come to think of it, the movies owe the stage considerable, so it would be nice if the film netted a few million dollars.

Negro Receives Odd Reprieve

RICHMOND, Va., July 2 (AP).—Lightning struck a blow for life—a temporary reprieve for a man sentenced to die in the electric chair.

Albert Jackson Jr., 23-year-old Charlottesville negro, was slated to be electrocuted Tuesday for the rape of a 40-year-old white woman.

But lightning damaged the power line leading to the chair at the state penitentiary here Friday. Repairs were not completed until Tuesday.

Now the case goes back to the trial court—for a new death date.

BUILDING OR REMODELLING?

"THIS SIDING MAKES YOUR HOME BEAUTIFUL AND FIRE-SAFE"

Cedargrain Siding Shingles are another of the famous Johns-Manville asbestos-cement products. They can't burn, won't rot and never require painting to preserve them. (A big saving in upkeep, itself!) With the lovely new colours recently introduced, J-M research developed a smooth-surfaced shingle that retains the smart effect of deep graining. On old buildings or new, J-M Cedargrains combine attractive appearance with permanent sidewall protection.

For free literature on Cedargrains see your J-M dealer or write Canadian Johns-Manville, Dept. 31, 199 Bay St., Toronto.

TRANSITE
ASBESTOS-CEMENT PIPE

Transite is the efficient, practical pipe for all pressure lines, sewage disposal and drainage purposes. Non-metallic, it can't rust, won't rot or corrode. Factory-precision-couplings assure permanently tight joints. This feature in Transite House Connection Pipe, for example, keeps out sewer-clogging roots.

60,000 Young In Polio Test

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE

NEW YORK, July 2 (AP)—A way to prevent paralysis from polio is being tested this summer in a great human experiment.

Time and 60,000 children will tell whether it works.

In a few cities hit by polio, children will soon line up for injections. They have already started at Houston, Tex.

Half will get a magical medicine from human blood—gamma globulin, or G.G. found in monkeys. The G.G. shots prevented polio paralysis.

The other half will get the injections that look the same out lacking the G.G.

Late this fall it will be known whether there is less paralysis or even no paralysis among youngsters getting the G.G. and whether the G.G. blockade the polio virus and stop it from hitting human nerves.

If so, there will be a fairly practical way of taking the dreadful paralytic sting out of polio. But until the human trials are run, parents, children and doctors will never know whether G.G. can do for humans what it does for monkeys that get the polio virus.

The vital experiment is being supported by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. It will star any day now.

The success of the trial, say Foundation officials, depends greatly upon parents' calm and willing co-operation and their understanding of all the facts.

These are the basic facts as known now from research:

The polio virus apparently enters our bodies through the mouth or nose.

It doesn't cause any sickness at all while it is in our stomachs or intestines.

MILD SICKNESS
It can cause mild sickness, such as fever and nausea and soreness of muscles, while it is in the blood, and a few nerve cells of the central nervous system. There is no paralysis at this time.

The virus causes paralysis only if it damages a lot of nerve cells. All the damage to nerve cells is done within about 24 hours.

People always recover from polio if nerve cells are not damaged, or only a few are hurt.

They can recover completely or greatly even from paralysis. The extent of recovery depends upon the extent of damage to nerve cells.

NEW DISCOVERY
Now comes a vital new discovery, made by Dr. David Bodian of the Johns Hopkins University and Dr. Dorothy Horstmann of Yale, in polio work with monkeys and chimpanzees.

After a few days, the virus goes from the intestines to the bloodstream of monkeys, before it gets into the nerves. The virus doesn't cause any real sickness while it is still in the blood.

While it is in their blood, the monkeys start making antibodies or agents which disarm or neutralize the virus. If the monkeys make enough antibody soon enough, they escape sickness and paralysis. If they don't, they fall ill of polio.

Most importantly, the monkeys can be protected. They are protected by giving them shots of gamma globulin, obtained from the blood of monkeys which had fought off polio, or recovered from it.

The shot of G.G. gives monkeys the extra antibody to prevent paralytic sickness.

NOT A VACCINE
The G.G. is not a vaccine. It stays in the blood only a few weeks, giving temporary protection.

Human tests must be made to learn whether G.G. can do any good.

Another vital fact is that most of us already have had polio. We developed our own antibodies, soon enough, and disarmed the invading virus. We probably never knew we had the virus.

We still have the miraculous antibody, in the gamma globulin, one tiny protein part of our blood. If that virus comes along again, our G.G. antibody will capture it and make it harmless. The experts estimate about 90 per cent of us over the age of 15 have these antibodies against polio.

35,000 TEXAS CHILDREN LINE UP FOR INJECTIONS

HOUSTON, Tex., July 2 (AP)—The tiny children of a city plagued with poliomyelitis today lined up for an experimental medical scientists believe can prevent paralysis.

Half of 35,000 children in the one-to-six age bracket were to receive an injection of gamma globulin, a blood fraction containing disease fighting antibodies. The others will get a non-effective substitute.

As the test began, Texas' biggest city was gripped by a polio epidemic: 163 city cases and six deaths so far this year; 109 county cases and four deaths, and 104 out-of-county cases and six deaths.

The state health department said the 206 cases of polio reported for the state as a whole last week set a record for one week. The total for the state this year was given as 1,123 cases, compared to 298 for the same period last year and 948 for the previous peak year, 1950.

Price of Freedom Will Remain High—St. Laurent

NEW YORK, July 2 (CP)—The price of freedom will continue high as long as organized Communist tyranny dominates some of the world and threatens the rest, Prime Minister St. Laurent of Canada said Tuesday night.

Mr. St. Laurent spoke to the United States people by recording in a special Dominion Day program staged by the Columbia Broadcasting System and carried in Canada by the C.B.C.

Americans and Canadians have the same objectives, the prime minister said. "Despite constitutional and political differences," he said, "we share the same broad political outlook."

"We both have a deep and abiding faith in the rule of law. This respect for the authority of law and for its safeguards is one of the fundamentals which we share and is a part of our cherished civilization which I believe Canadians and Americans are resolved to preserve at whatever the cost may be."

"What Americans call liberty and Canadians are apt to call freedom—the same commodity under two different labels—is our most priceless possession."

"So long as organized Communist tyranny dominates so much of Europe and Asia and threatens all outside its borders, the price of freedom will continue to be high."

"But we in Canada, like you in the United States, have resolved to pay that price."

Children's Health Plan For B.C. Recommended

Ottawa Committee Claims Plan Would Reduce Hardship; Parents Share Costs

OTTAWA, July 2 (CP)—A British Columbia committee has recommended that consideration be given to a comprehensive health insurance plan in the province to cover only children.

The recommendation was one of many made by the committee, established to survey British Columbia's health and medical needs. The report of the committee was tabled today in the Commons by Health Minister Martin.

Tabled earlier were reports from several other provinces including Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Ontario, Saskatchewan and Alberta. The surveys, financed by the federal government, mainly recommended against immediate establishment of a national health insurance program.

The British Columbia committee, headed by Dr. G. R. F. Elliot, assistant provincial health officer, said complete health insurance now is not as urgent for the province as a few years ago.

A provincial hospital program has been established along with a complete program of medical care for recipients of government allowances.

The committee recommended that high priority be given to a health insurance program for children as a means to develop a healthy population in the future and reduce the hardship resulting from the cost of medical care for children.

Costs of such a program, said the committee, should be split between the parents and government.

Officials made it clear the report reflects the opinions and proposals of officers of the provincial health department. It does not bind the British Columbia government to action. However, about 80 of the report's 125 recommendations have already been acted upon or are in the process of being carried out.

The committee suggested that the services of medical specialists be made available without charge to patients in such fields as arthritis, geriatrics, pediatrics and dermatology. Services already are provided free for tuberculosis, cancer and venereal diseases.

VICTORIANS ENJOY CONCERT BY EDMONTON SCHOOL BAND

Hundreds of Victorians and visiting Americans thronged Beacon Hill Park Tuesday night for a two-hour band concert. Even a chill wind could not cool their appreciation of the artistry of the Edmonton School Boys' Band, comprising 125 teen-age bandmen.

The youthful players rendered both modern and classical selections, under the batons of T. V. Newlove, conductor, and O. W. Murray, assistant.

Ten majorettes with the group presented several drill routines.

Victoria Elks Hold Peel Trophy for Coming Year

In the first ceremony of its kind ever opened to other than lodge officers, the Harry Peel Ritualistic Trophy has been awarded the Victoria Elks Lodge at their home on Cormorant.

It was won in competition with five other island lodges in the No. 2 district of Elkdom.

Presenting the silver trophy to Exalted Ruler Don Johnston, Deputy District Grand Exalted Ruler Jack Beggs of Port Alberni said: "Leadership is what we need everywhere . . . you have succeeded in bringing out the finer points of ritualistic work."

This entails the initiation of new lodge members; and the entire ceremony must be committed to memory.

Exalted Ruler Johnston praised the co-operation I have received from lodge officers and the membership in general, and added "achievement is built up as time goes on . . . I hope that those who follow will be even keener and more eager than I have been."

Other competing lodges were those at Lake Cowichan, Duncan, Nanaimo, Courtenay and the Alberni Valley.

Winner in 1951 was the Nanaimo lodge.

BASED ON CEREMONY
The award is made on the basis of ceremonial perfection, memory of the initiation ritual, pronunciation and dress. The trophy is held by the winning lodge for a one-year period.

Following the ceremony at the Elks home, William Erickson, incoming district deputy grand exalted ruler, was presented to lodge members, who included several from up-island.

Donated by Harry Peel at the time of his retirement as grand exalted ruler of all Elks lodges in Canada, the trophy was first put up for competition three years ago on the island.

HISTORIC CITY
Founded in 1790, Belleville, Ont., was incorporated as a town in 1850 and as a city in 1877.

RACE RIOTING HITS CHICAGO

CHICAGO, July 2 (AP)—A disturbance broke out Tuesday night—a few blocks from the meeting place of the two major political conventions—as some 3,000 persons smashed windows and set fire to a home where negroes were reported trying to move in.

Police said the crowd broke all the windows in a two-story frame building in the south side stockyards district near the international amphitheatre. The Republican convention opens at the amphitheatre Monday. The Democrats open their meeting July 21.

Police said the front porch and two front doors of the building were destroyed and two fires were set.

About 200 policemen were sent to the scene.

Victorian One Of B.C. Victims

Ontario Hardest Hit With 42 Fatalities;
10 Violent Deaths Recorded in Province

The 1952 Dominion Day holiday will go down in history as one of the blackest ever recorded.

Between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Tuesday 101 persons met violent death in Canada. In the total were 10 British Columbians including one Victorian.

Traffic accidents claimed the lives of 41, and drowning was second in the grim race with 36 victims.

Only Newfoundland escaped the death toll. Here is the breakdown of fatalities in other provinces: Ontario, 42; Quebec, 18; Manitoba, 12; New Brunswick, 10; Alberta, six; Nova Scotia, six; Saskatchewan and Prince Edward Island, one each.

In British Columbia since the start of the holiday, there have been four traffic fatalities and four drownings. One man was run down by a train, and another died in a plane crash.

Victoria and district's fatality was Mrs. Frances Boorman, 63, 3238 Wetherby Road, who was killed in a car collision at the corner of Denman and Belmont Street Monday night.

Charles LeFevre, 50, was killed in a head-on, two-car collision Tuesday in suburban Burnaby.

His car collided with one driven by Neil C. McKinnon of Victoria.

McKinnon was treated in hospital at New Westminster for minor bruises and then discharged.

At Golden, the Kicking Horse River claimed the life of nine-year-old Arthur Langlands.

Larry Lawson, a Port Simpson cannery worker, died when his canoe capsized in the Skeena River.

Also listed on the fatality roll are:

Steve Kuz of Messiter; Mrs. Rosie Wallace, 50, of the Summerville Indian Reserve; Freddy Griffiths, eight; Vancouver; Tony Doole, 17, Vancouver, and Alex Anthony, 33, West Vancouver.

Kuz, a railway patrolman, was struck by a Canadian National Railway train at Blue River, while Mrs. Wallace was drowned in the Vedder River near Chilliwack.

Griffiths was drowned when he fell off a float at Vancouver.

Doole and Anthony died near Chilliwack. Doole was a traffic victim while Anthony died in a plane crash. His aircraft fell in Okanagan Lake.

Douglas Stuart, 24, died instantly Tuesday night when the speedy midjet car in which he was riding overturned on the Loughheed highway, two miles from Mission City.

The driver of the car, Walter McCallum, 29, was taken to the Mission hospital.

Final Saskatchewan Vote Count

REGINA, July 2 (CP).—The final count of Saskatchewan votes cast in the June 11th general election got under way today in all 49 ridings.

Envelopes containing sworn ballots were to be opened and counted. Although there has been no official total, it appears there are 20,000 or more sworn ballots to be counted in the province. The results will not alter the C.C.F. victory in the general election.

Cleveland's N.H.L. Bid Fails

TORONTO, July 2 (BUP).—The board of governors of the National Hockey League rejected an application by the Cleveland Barons to join the N.H.L. League president Clarence Campbell announced the decision following an all-day meeting of the board.

Pearson Sees Europe Tension

WINNIPEG, July 2 (CP).—Lester B. Pearson, Canada's external affairs minister, said today the free world must be prepared for an increase in tension in Europe.

The possibility of accidentally "slipping" into a third world war will increase in the next two or three months until German ratification is decided "one way or the other," said Mr. Pearson. The Russians would do anything short of going to war to stop the West German integration with West Europe's defense program.

Canadian Gas Hearing Recessed

WASHINGTON, July 2 (AP).—A power commission hearing on proposals to import Canadian natural gas recessed today pending arguments on a motion to deny all applications.

Examiner Glenn Law set the arguments for Monday. He said he would decide then whether to extend the recess pending commission action on the motion. Six applicants are involved—five of them seeking to enter Pacific Northwest markets.

B.C. ELECTIONS

Second Count On Thursday

The break in the "waiting it out" period for British Columbia's political leaders and voters will come Thursday morning when counting of the alternative votes in the June 12 election begins.

At returning officers' headquarters in the 41 ridings (for 48 seats) counting will begin at 9 a.m. and will continue daily until decisions have been reached.

But because of the closeness of many contests and the large vote cast it may be another week before the final results are known and British Columbia gets a full picture of what its next government will be.

First job of the counting teams will be to check the absentee vote and thus arrive at complete first count results. Then the low candidates will be dropped from the contests and the second choices on their ballots will be distributed according to the way they are marked.

In most ridings specially trained small teams have been chosen to do the second counts. This means that counting will be much slower than on election night when ballots were counted by hundreds of teams in precincts.

Outside of the four seats already decided it is expected only one or two other ridings will be settled tomorrow. Far north Atlin, where only three candidates ran, and there are comparatively few votes, should be the first one reported.

To assist its readers in following the workings of the new voting method, The Times will carry reports on the complete first counts, the second and third counts necessary and will show how the alternative votes are distributed. These will be reported progressively as they are received.

39 Aircraft
In Hunt for Lost Plane

WHITEHORSE, Yukon, July 2 (BUP).—Five United States Air Force planes today entered the search for a R.C.A.F. Mitchell bomber missing and believed crashed in the mountainous Yukon territories.

The reinforcement searchcraft are from the 10th Air Search and Rescue Unit based at Elmendorf and Ladd Fields in Alaska. They brought the total of aircraft hunting for the vanished bomber and its four-man crew to 39, two extra Dakota planes being sent from Edmonton to aid 32 already at Whitehorse.

Once Georgia is disposed of, the committee tackles contests between Eisenhower and Taft backers in Kansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri and Texas. Texas is the biggest—38 delegates at stake. It may not get committee action before Thursday or Friday.

All told, 72 delegates are involved in these contests.

As of Tuesday night, Taft forces called the tune.

An 18-member Florida delegation almost solid for Taft was recognized by the national committee in an unanimous vote.

Redistribution Bill Passed in Commons

OTTAWA, July 2 (BUP).—A four-day stalemate in Commons over the redistribution issue was broken late today and the House gave preliminary approval to new electoral maps based on last year's census.

The action started the bill through the legislative mill of clause-by-clause debate.

The first clause of the redistribution bill, which contains the detailed outlines of the 265 electoral ridings which will become effective with the next general election, was passed after Opposition Leader George Drew and Citizenship Minister Walter Harris wrangled over the system by which boundaries are set.

Provisions of the bill got quick approval in the Commons up to the point where Chairman Louis-Rene Beaudoin began calling each of the 265 ridings by name. Extended debate was expected over only six hotly contested constituencies which the opposition claimed were being gerrymandered to prevent re-election of prominent Conservative and C.C.F. members.

The latest argument between Harris, sponsor of the bill, and Drew, concerned comments made in the British Commons by Winston Churchill when he led the opposition there.

Early today, Harris quoted Churchill and implied that the Conservative leader in Britain was opposed to recommendations of an independent boundary commission on redistribution in the United Kingdom.

Drew quoted Churchill extensively after lunch and said Harris had misquoted the British prime minister. What Churchill opposed, Drew said, were changes in the Labor government made in the boundary commission's recommendations after they had been put before the parliament at Westminster.

Drew and Harris wrangled over the interpretation of Churchill's words, and clause one of the redistribution bill went through with a roar of acclaim from Liberal members.

The parliamentary stalemate was broken a few hours after Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent said the opposition was exaggerating its complaints against boundary changes in the six disputed ridings.

Taft Enjoys Biggest Defeat of Ike Forces

Supporters of Ohio Senator Knock 14 Georgia Delegates Off Eisenhower's Voting Strength

CHICAGO, July 2 (CP).—Supporters of Senator Robert Taft knocked 14 Georgia delegates from Gen. Dwight Eisenhower's voting strength today and put 17 of their own men into convention seats for next week's Republican nominating convention.

This was the biggest victory for the Ohio senator and the biggest defeat for Eisenhower in the fight to seat disputed delegates at the convention.

It established beyond much doubt that Taft backers are running the pre-convention show. Five more disputes between Taft and Eisenhower delegates are still to be settled by the Republican National Committee.

By a vote of 62 to 39, the committee tossed out of the convention Georgia's self-described "regular" delegation, which has been representing the state since 1944, and ordered a solidly pro-Taft delegation seated in its stead.

The "regular" delegation numbered 14 Eisenhower supporters, two Taft men and one uncommitted delegate.

This meant a net gain of at least 15 convention votes for Taft.

In the Associated Press tabulation—based on avowed and committed delegates—the victory put Taft ahead of Eisenhower, 489 to 410, with 604 votes needed to win the presidential nomination.

There was no doubt the angered Eisenhower backers would appeal today's National Committee action to the convention credentials committee and fight it out on the convention floor, if necessary.

Once Georgia is disposed of, the committee tackles contests between Eisenhower and Taft backers in Kansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri and Texas. Texas is the biggest—38 delegates at stake. It may not get committee action before Thursday or Friday.

All told, 72 delegates are involved in these contests.

As of Tuesday night, Taft forces called the tune.

An 18-member Florida delegation almost solid for Taft was recognized by the national committee in an unanimous vote.

Four Americans Seized by Reds

BERLIN, July 2 (AP).—Gun-brandishing Communist "people's police" arrested four sightseeing Americans, including a chaplain and a woman, today and whisked them into the Soviet-occupied east zone of Berlin.

West German police reported that the incident occurred at Dupepel, where the American zone resident suburb of Zehlendorf borders the Russian zone.

The police said a Russian officer and East zone police, armed with rifles, rushed the Americans' car when it stopped at the border and the occupants began taking photographs.

The police said the Communists entered the American car and forced it across the border.

Eye-witnesses reported that the car had U.S. license plates, showing that it was registered in West Germany, not in Berlin. This indicated that the abducted Americans were visitors to the city and possibly not familiar with the ticklish border question.

The West police said that at the spot where the incident occurred the boundary between the American sector and the surrounding Soviet zone is marked by iron spikes in the road. They said the Americans drove past these right up to the red-and-white barrier pole across the road at the Russian check point.

The Americans were held about 20 minutes at the check point and then taken off to the Soviet military post at nearby Machnow.
